Craig, John R.

John R. Craig, USNR, Advanced to Captain

DEC. 8 1945

Captain John R. Craig, USNR, was advanced to his present rating from that of commander, it was announced yesterday. He formerly served as security and public relations officer in the office of inspector of naval material, Bethlehem Steel Company.

During the captain's many years in service he has seen service in Navy intelligence, fire prevention, accident prevention and duty at the Philadelphia Navy Yard, as well as on board a World War I destroyer. He is the holder of a pre-Pearl Harbor medal and the Navy Reserve medal and ten-year medal.

Captain Craig, who has recently been stationed in Boston, has been assigned to the safety branch of the Office of Industrial Relations of the U. S. Navy at Washington, D. C.

December 8, 1945