Crouse, Maynard B.

Riegelsville Marine Brings Home Trophies

Part of a Japanese flag is included in an exhibit of 18 Japanese items collected by Pfc. Maynard B. Crouse, son of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin F. Crouse, Riegelsville R. D. 1, while he was on Guadalcanal. The booty is in Saucon Valley Trust Company's display window on Main Street, Hellertown.

Other items exhibited are a leather ammunition carrying case, a leather map carrying case, a rubber food ration bag, a leather coin purse, an American-made red and blue pencil found in a map carrying case, a deluxe soap box similar to those used here, a canvass bag, an anti-aircraft pompom shell, a clip of .25-calibre ammunition, six identification tags and two censor stamps.

SEP 24 1943

The Marine is in a California hospital. His collection was sent to his parents, and brought to the trust company by Marcus Bauder, insurance agent.

September 24, 1943