borough, are in their country's armed forces, one in the Army, the other in the Navy.

Charles was inducted into the former service on August 10, 1942 and is at present stationed with a military police unit at Albuquerque, N. M., being on duty at Kirtland Field. Before going into the Army he was employed by the Hercules Cement Company.

Brother Steve liked the deep blue sea better, so he enlisted in the Navy last November 2 and is now at Jacksonville, Fla., whence he was sent after his basic training was completed at Bainbridge, Mo. He's attending a mechanics school at the Jacksonville Naval Air Station. He is a former employe of the Treadwell Engineering Company, Easton.
