Betze, Joseph

Joseph Betze Gets Promotion in England

The promotion of Joseph Betze from private first class to corporal was announced today in England by Brig. Gen. J. H. Houghton, commanding general of a base air depot in England.

Cpl. Betze is serving as a hydraulic technician with the Air Service Command, the organization that backed the air war in Europe by readying new front-line planes for action speeding tons of supplies to forward air bases and ammunition to combat stations.

The corporal is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Betze, 1249 East Third Street. Before entering the Army in July 27, 1942, he was employed by the Bethlehem Steel Company. He graduated from Washington High School. His brothers in the service are Pvt. Frank Betze, serving in the Philippines, and Pvt. Steve Betze, serving with the 60th Regiment.
