MARY PATRICIA DOYLE MARRIED TO SOLDIER

Pvt. Harry Francis McGlade Takes Bride at Saturday Ceremony.

The marriage of Miss Mary Patricia Doyle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John M. Doyle, 420 Martel Street, and Private Harry Francis McGlade, son of Councilman and Mrs. Harry McGlade, 527 Greene Court, Fountain Hill, was solemnized on Saturday morning at a nuptial mass in the Church of the Holy Infancy. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Edward Murphy.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was gowned in white satin with a full length train and veil of tulle. The veil fell from a cap made of lillies of the valley. She carried a bouquet of white gladiolas and bouvardia.

Miss Ann Lynn, a cousin of the bride and maid of honor, wore a gown of pink tulle and hat of blue tulle with a crown of pink rosebuds. Miss Lynn, who is from Wilkes-Barre, carried a bouquet of pink gladiolas and blue delpheniums.

The bridegroom selected his brother, Edward McGlade, as best man. His ushers were Philip Vooz and Thomas Doyle, brother of the bride.

William Rohs presided at the organ, while Joseph Holden sang "Mother At Your Feet Is Kneeling," "Ave Maria," "O Lord I Am Not Worthy," "On This Day" and "Just For Today."

After a wedding breakfast served at the home of the bride, the newlyweds left on a wedding trip to New York City. Upon their return they will reside temporarily with the bride's parents.

Both are graduates of Bethlehem Catholic High School. Pvt. McGlade is stationed at Camp Polk, La. 8-31-42
