doing it our way

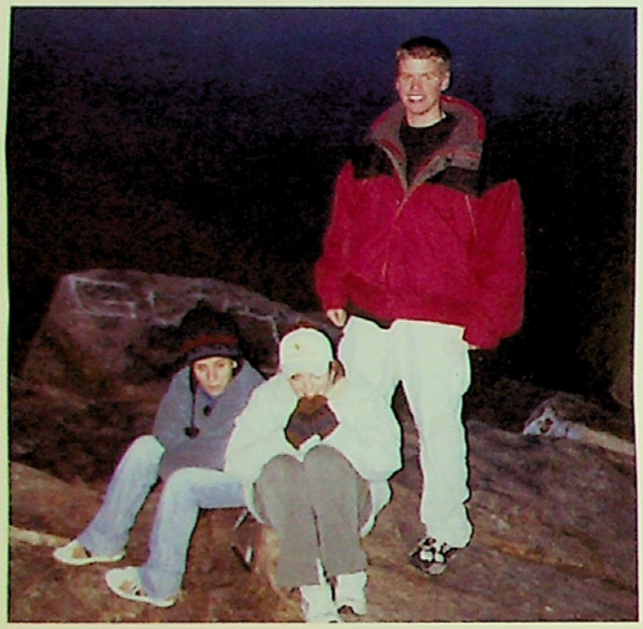
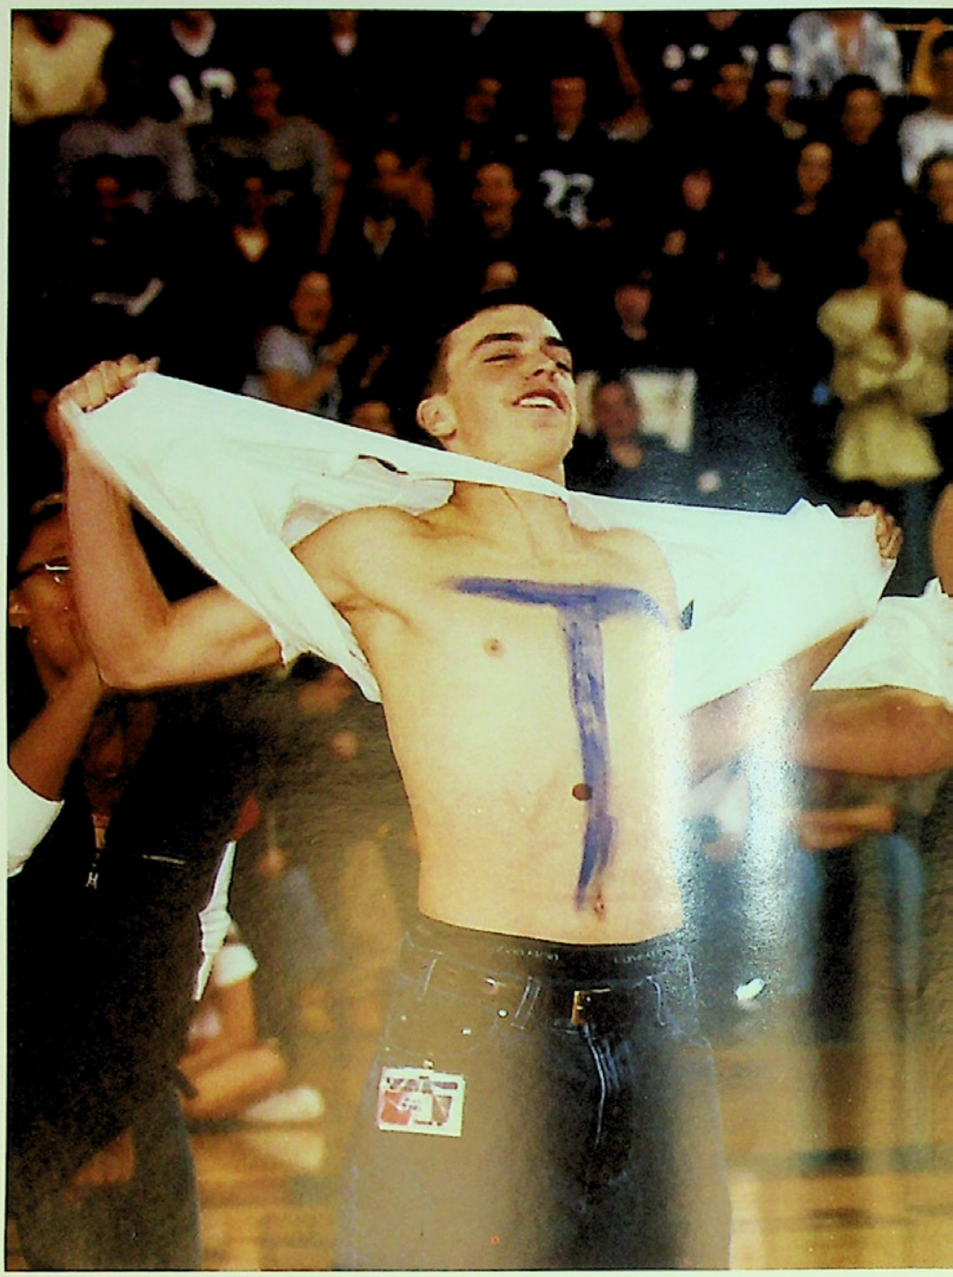
life

Life at Liberty is life you will not find at any other high school. Everywhere you look you see kids who are involved in many activities. From academics to athletics, students put their heart and soul into the work that they do. The support for other students can be seen at the sporting events, coffee houses, plays, and any other student event.





◀ Whether sitting at a desk or on top of the Appalachians, Emily Dornblaser, Erin Blache, and Keith Godshall know how to embrace the moment.

▲ Life at Liberty certainly has changed. Robbie Biggs's commiting a level two infraction right now, but look Mr. Burkhardt, he does have his ID on.

The football captains get a surprise from their parents

Darren Mason

Scott Gould

George Yasso

▲ There is light at the end of the tunnel for seniors!

▲ In and out of school, the students of Liberty are always learning something new. The editors of Cauldron, Liberty Life, and Young Writer are seen here on the steps of Columbia University in New York City

◀ The seniors certainly did show that they are the life of Liberty.

▼ Life in the '60's continues for Dean Snyder and Joel Keeler.

▲ Seniors Katie Recine and Megan Lewis take a break from collecting money for Jones High School in North Carolina which was severly damaged during Hurricane Floyd. Liberty students are always giving a helping hand to those in need.

Liberty- 1. condition of being free. 2. right or power to do as one pleases. Liberty, not only is it our name, but it defines the very essence of what we are--free. For the past 78 years, LHS students have established a reputation of pride and spirit that has continuously pushed our school to new heights. Rapidly moving forward into the new millenium, Liberty students will undoubtedly set the standards for those to come and prove to be doing it our way.

► The cross country team triumphs after a record winning season. The girls team finished first in districts and the boys team placed second. Both teams went on to states.

▲ These computer techies, Miguel Reyes and Owen Wrabel, take a break from their busy schedule to relax.

▲ The seniors once again reign supreme during Spirit Week and show the underclassmen how a pep-rally should be run.

◄ Belting out the music of the night, the Grenadier Band pumps up the crowd at the Liberty-Freedom football game. With a band like this, no wonder we triumphed!

▼ Pimping it up. . . these two ladies men, Ethan Medgie and Dave Fistner get into the groove as they strut their stuff throughout the hallways.

► Catherine Schneider and Amy Rosenfeld smile in the sun bathed Lab Center.

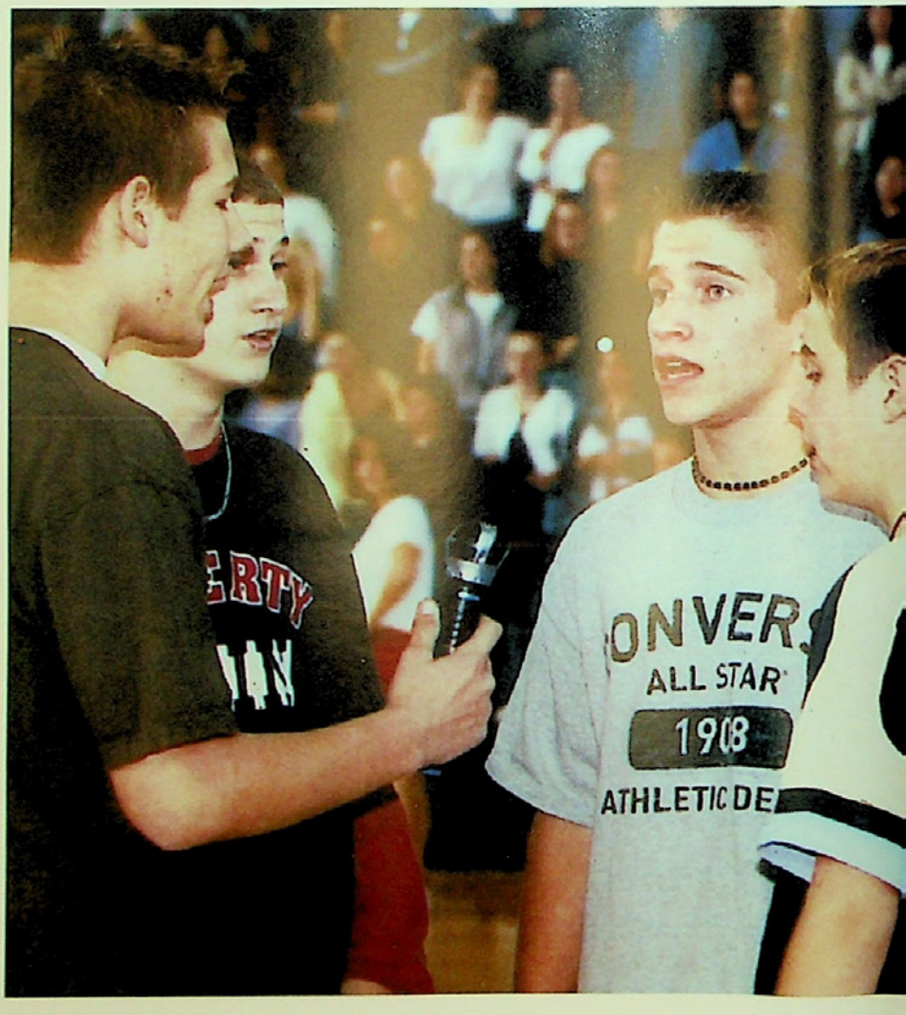
▼ Opponents watch out, here comes the regal Color Guard of Liberty. The competition runs scared after catching a glimpse of our flags.

► The Senior class issues a stern warning to the underclassmen and to Freedom with their banner.

& the pursuit of happiness

Happiness in life is a goal that everyone strives to achieve. Without it, things such as wealth and a successful career are rendered useless. Liberty students have much to be happy about-- everything from friends and activities to just waiting for the end of the school day to arrive. It is these happy moments that help to strengthen us as people and will remain in our minds for years to come. And even when times are bad, just remember --"when one door of happiness closes, another opens."

▲ Seniors Ashley Wright and Lauren Fields are always happy to be with each other.

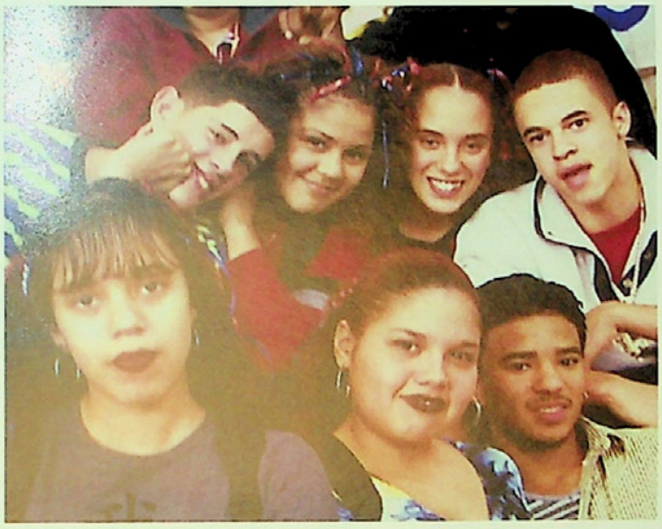


► Liberty's own version of the Backstreet Boys, The HarmonEyes, put their heart and soul into singing their rendition of the Alma Mater.

▲ Minstral Steve Moss is so excited to have his picture taken that he forgets to play his tuba. Pay more attention next time Steve!

◀ Powder puff champions Melissa Haas and Nicole Edinger take time from celebrating their victory to show their friendship for each other.

▼ Meghan Haas, Erin Martin, and Chrisann Calvo smile before getting a quick bite to eat.



▲ This friendly bunch shares a moment of Liberty spirit as they anxiously anticipate the beginning of the Spirit Week pep-rally.

▲ The 1999 Homecoming Court ▼

▼ Siesta time. After mastering their Spanish lesson, Azra Ali and Kate Donchez take it upon themselves to stop working.

▶ Biagio Colasante and Ryan Wertman race to the end of the wrestling mat during gym class doing the worm.

▼ These students enthusiastically cheer on their favorite football team.

doing it our way

Moving into the next century and beyond, Liberty has changed and at the same time stayed true to our Liberty pride roots. Moving forward we have showed that we're keeping with the Liberty tradition, but doing it our way, the way of the classes of the new millenium.

▶ Janelle Hesse stayed up a little too late studying last night.

▲ Alex Cofre, Tommy Haytmanek, and Aaron Rush hoist up Mike Kemeter as they cheer the powder puff team on to victory.

▲ Shan Chen is happy because she is a senior and will be able to say "peace" to Liberty.

◀ The seniors certainly know how it is!

After a rough day of spirit week, Lindsay Birckhead proves that her friendship with Jen Schultz will last forever.

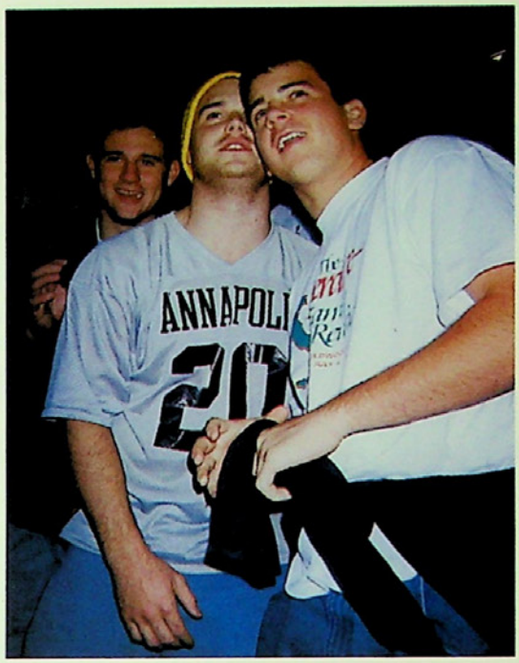
...through friendship

Some friends come and go; others stay forever and leave footprints in our hearts. The friendships made in high school will last forever, the experiences and lessons shared, never forgotten. Some friends are from pre-school, others a previous enemy. No matter how friends are made, they're always there for support.

Chris Jones carries Krista Sankovsky over the threshold of the band room.

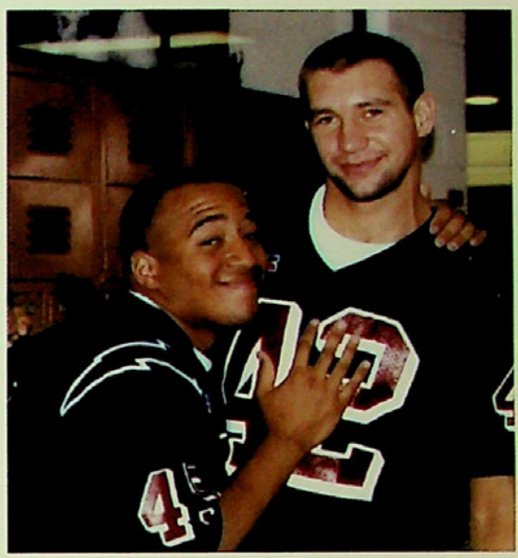
Friends are always there to confide in. Heidi Ott and Rachel Mack talk at one of the Liberty Soccer games.

▲ GQ Zach Hor gets some lovin' from Steph W abel du g Spanish class.



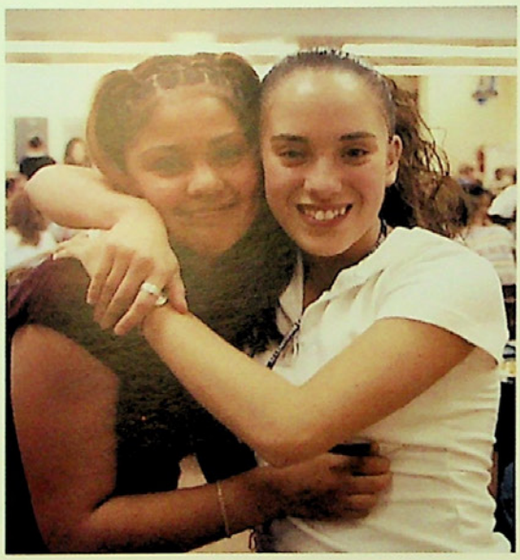
◀ Through three levels of schooling, Brian Ellow and Mario D'Egidio close out their senior year singing the Liberty Alma Mater together.

▼ It is obvious that Martin Rosario and George Yasso are close both on and off the football field.



◀ The Senior Powder Puff girls stand strong as they approach the refs to see who will kick off the first Liberty-Freedom game of the 1999 spirit week.

▼ Antonio Rebimbas and his ladies show that their friendship will always be bright.



▲ Stephanie Torres and Isabel Garcia take a break from their hectic lunch to show how close their friendship is.

Liberty students have found many unique ways of expressing themselves. Whether the mood is sad, happy, or crazy, someone will have an expression to capture the moment. Many of these moments will forever leave an impression on our minds. It just goes to show that a picture is worth a thousand words.

...through expressions

▼ Judd Walter and Matt Geiger certainly can be described as close friends. Cute slipers Matt.

▲ John Schultheis doesn't look too thrilled to be going to his next class.

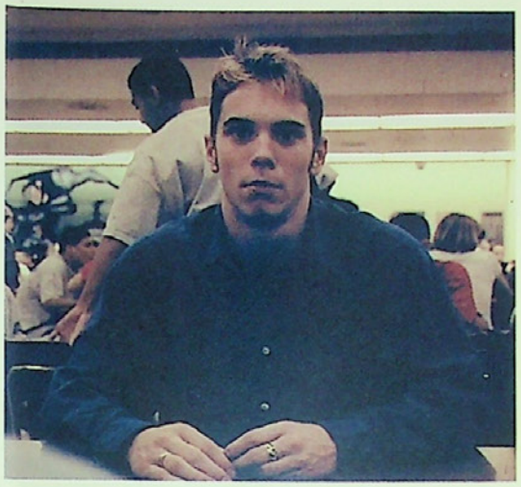
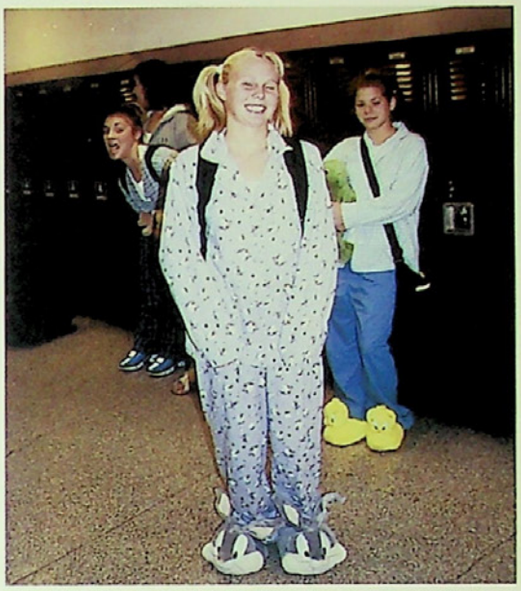
▲ Bobby Keiderling, what are you doing?

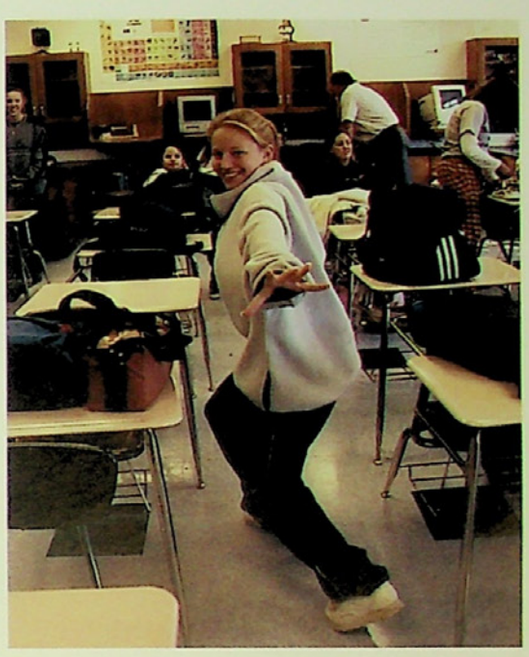


▲ No matter what, Jared Hall is forever lost.



◀ Only Kiira Johnson can role out of bed and be THIS happy!

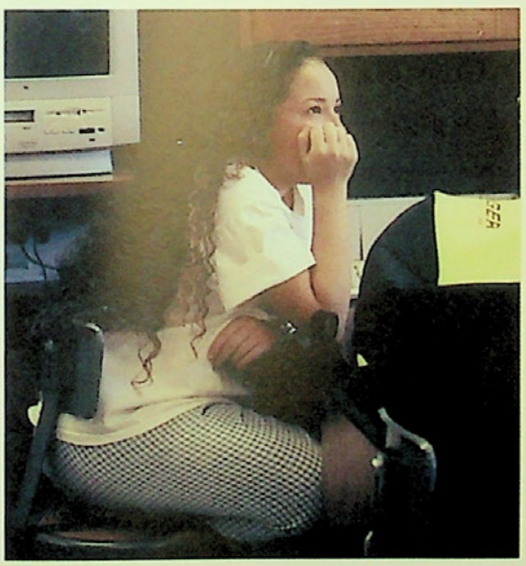
▼ Surfin USA! Aleen Bobal can't help taking a little break from the east coast to do a little California Dreaming.



◀ This group of junior girls look as lively as ever as they compete in the Battle of the Classes.

▼ Dan Rucker strives to outrun his competition. He sure looks intense.

▼ Even though she's trying to concentrate on the class, Elyse Sandoval can't help a little daydreaming.



through ...competition

▲ The current men on the cover of GQ are up for some competition.

there are a few vital things that keep the heart of Liberty High School beating: friends, lunch, and competition. Many of the great moments of the year come in the heat of fierce competition; whether it's the clutch goal, that last step, or the final yard against Freedom. It is that Life, Liberty, and the Pursuit of Happiness that triggers the competitive spirit of Liberty.

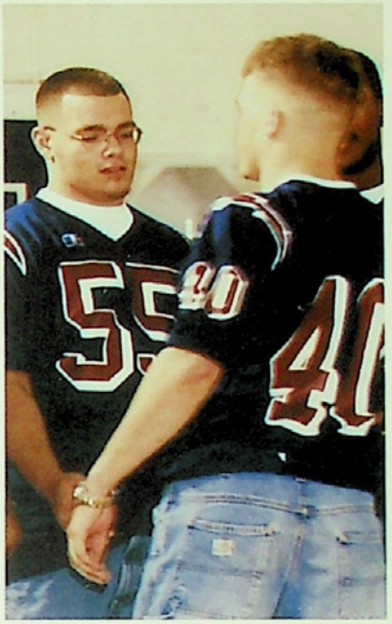
> "you never know what is enough unless you know what is more than enough."
> ~ william blake

► No one can take this boy down no matter how hard he tries. Andre Pogue explodes through Easton's defense.

◄ The competition between Liberty and Freedom is not just between the football teams. Dan Terry some how managed to acquire a Freedom band uniform.

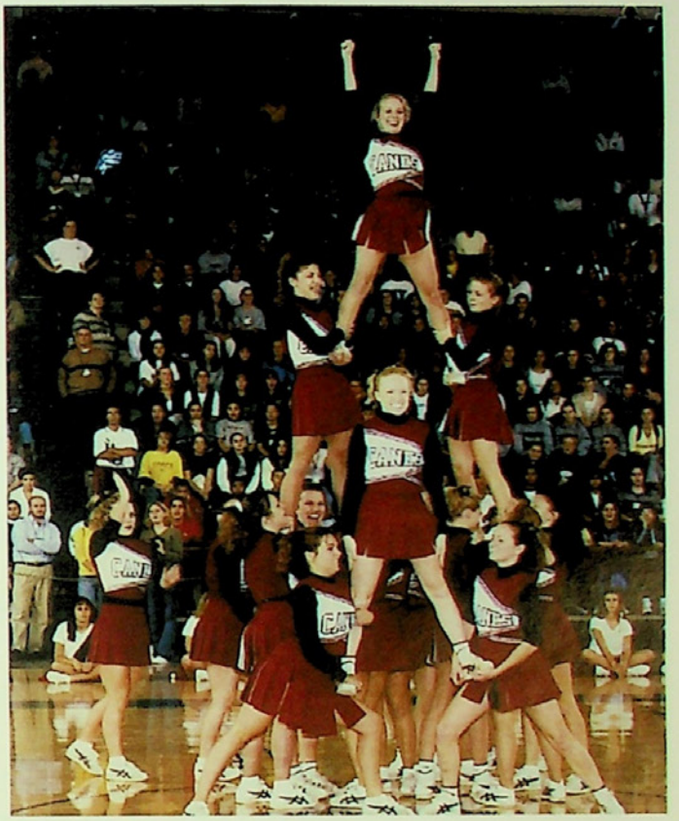
► The seniors are on their way to winning the hula-hoop race. The Battle of the Classes has become a tradition at the spirit week pep rally.

▲ Lawrence Bernard gets a quick breather on the side line as his coaches plan their strategy for the next play.



◀ Tony Babio listens closely to the words of wisdom coming from Adam Wagner's mouth.

▼ The 1999-2000 cheerleaders entertain the school at the Homecoming Pep-Rally. They are always there to support any team here at Liberty.

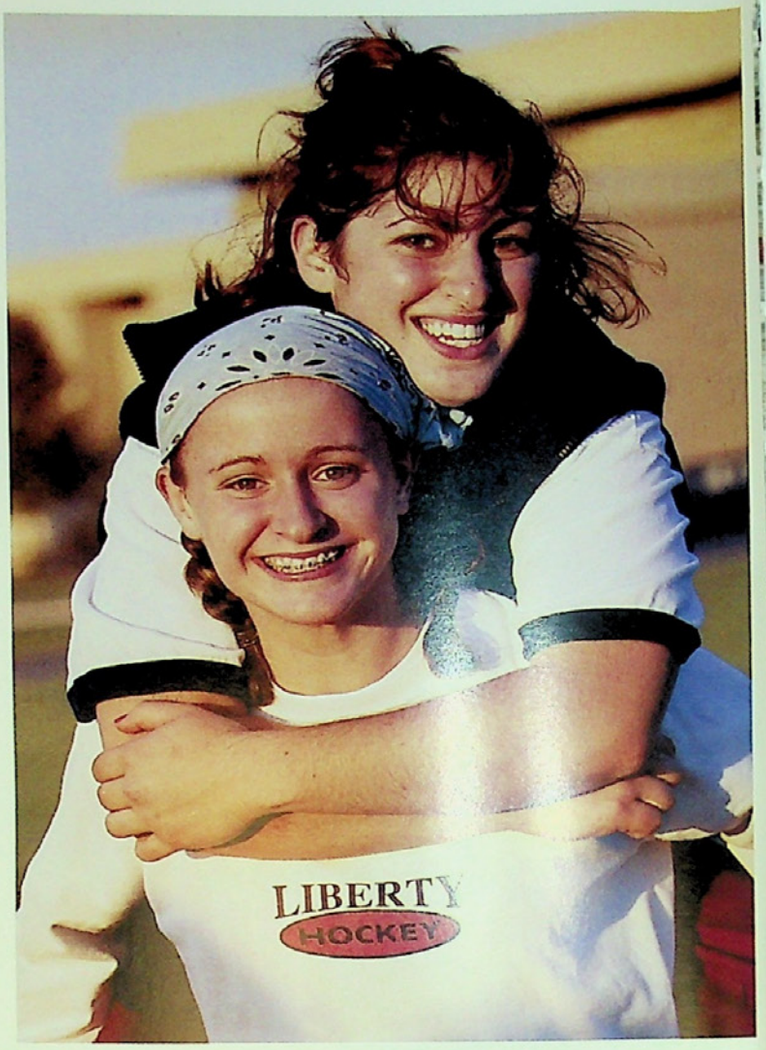


◀ Katrina Quintana can be seen leading the pack at a girls cross-country meet. The girls cross-country team was ranked number one in the Mountain Valley Conference.

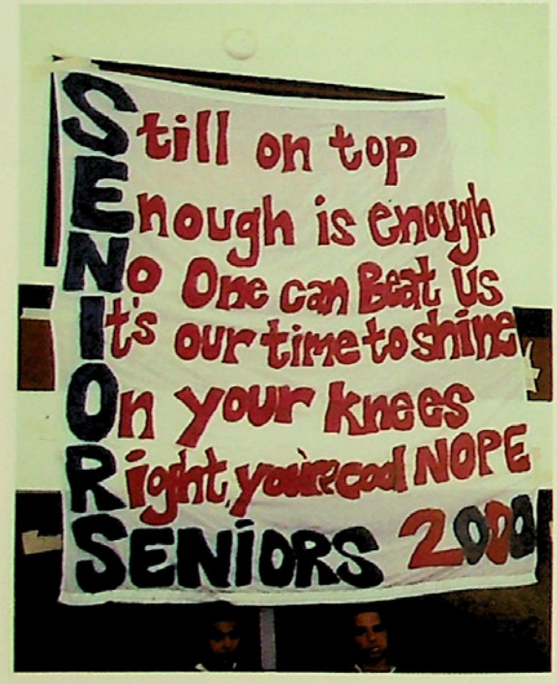
◀ The determined soccer team strolls confidently, knowing that no competition will ever stop the Hurricanes. Due to the soccer team's great success, Coach Sarkozy achieved his 300th win in the 1999 season.

through ...spirit

If there is one thing that Liberty is not lacking, it is spirit. From the ends of every hallway, sporting event, or any other school activity, the feeling of school spirit is overwhelming. When people look at Liberty from the outside, it is impossible to understand the amount of spirit a high school can possess. But when you walk inside the doors of Liberty, the spirit can be felt in every student that walks by.



Katie Hursh and Donna Attieh show the true spirit of Liberty at their field hockey game.



The seniors prove that no matter what the underclassmen say, they are still on top!

Erin Capozzolo and Jasmyn Rivera get their fellow classmates riled up at the pep rally. They really know how to have a good time!

Meghan Joseph brightens everyone's day with her cheerful and fun-loving personality.

class of 2000:

Well, here we are--four years and many hours of homework later. In 1996, we walked into Liberty for the first time from Nitschmann, Northeast, Broughal, and other places, but now we walk out together as the Liberty High School Class of 2000.

As we leave Liberty for the last time on June 14, 2000, we leave together, having grown from timid freshmen into confident graduates off to the armed forces, the job force, and college. Although we are graduating and moving on, Liberty will never leave us because it has shaped and molded us into what we are now--the Class of 2000.

Through the football games, pep rallies, and spirit week, our laughter and tears have united us into 498 strong. During the past four years, we have shown the school who we are and given ourselves the courage to capture our dreams. Now we leave Liberty with our dreams and the new found courage to make them a reality.

Liberty is not just a building. It is the friendships made, the memories shared, and the lessons taught that will always remain etched in our memories for the rest of our days. From the trips to 800 to see Miss Seidel, Mrs. Shive, or Mrs. Watson, from painting late into the night during spirit week with Mrs. Roman, from Mr. Burkhardt leading the Alma Mater, we all have vivid memories of the people who have helped us along the way. We will always appreciate the adults that helped nudge and at times, even pushed us through the trials of the past four years. We would also like to give a special thank you to Mrs. Gilliard for helping us put together this amazing yearbook that will let us always remember our days here at Liberty. As Liberty becomes part of our past, we will always be the Class of 2000, and always be "doing it our way!"

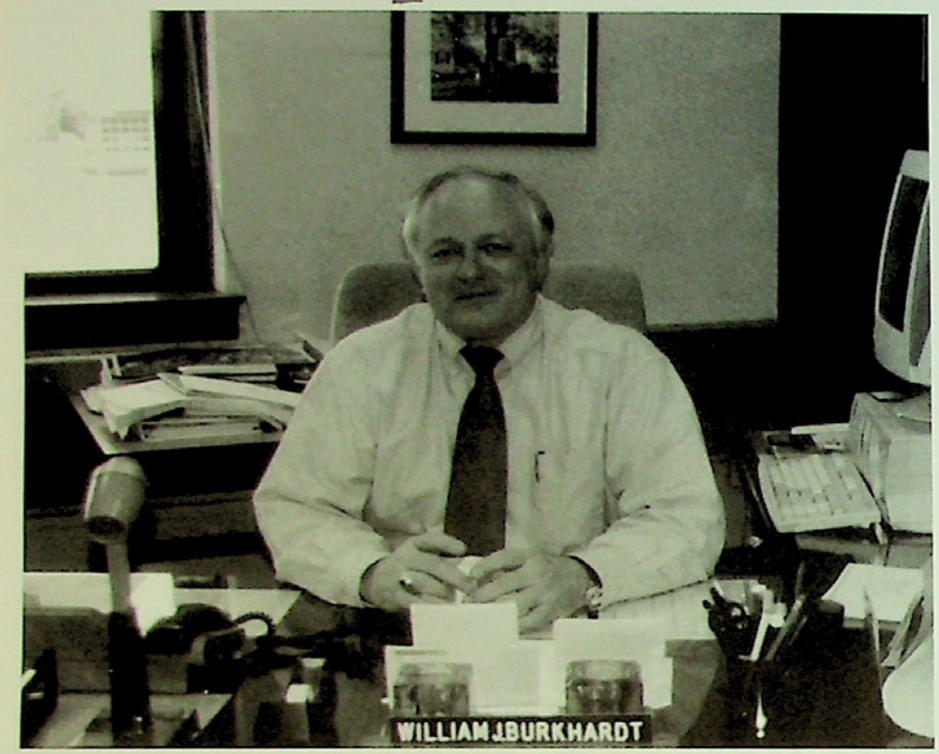
principal



Mr. William Burkhardt
Principal

To The Class of 2000:

On New Year's Eve 1999, television screens throughout the world flashed images of change through each country's individual, unique interpretation used to usher in the year 2000, a most special year. Millions watched as time zones indicated the various celebrations. As each country put forth it's best effort to reflect itself on the moment, it became apparent to me as the Principal of Liberty High school, how the common thread of the day's moments of celebration and individual interpretations of the hour were a reflection, too, of you, the Class of 2000.

Each of you has shared in the common thread of your high school; and yet, your individual achievements as students, athletes, musicians, actors, writers, and artists makes each of you in oneness through your completion, your understanding, and your caring for each other. It is this that gives your class its strength to move forward in time.

Your foundation has been established in a moment of change in time. And as the movement from one century to the next was a celebration of the future and its hopes, you, the Class of 2000, will move forward in opportunity into your futures. It is my hope for each of you that your successes are abundant and your lives are fulfilling. My very best to you.

Sincerely,
William J. Burkhardt, Principal

To The Class of 2000:

I hope your memories of Liberty are positive. You have excelled in all areas of interest and your contributions to both academic and extra-curricular programs are appreciated.

It has been my pleasure to serve as your class principal and watch you mature into caring young adults with very bright futures.

I congratulate you and wish you luck and happiness in all your future endeavors.

Sincerely,
Sandra Seidel

doing it our way

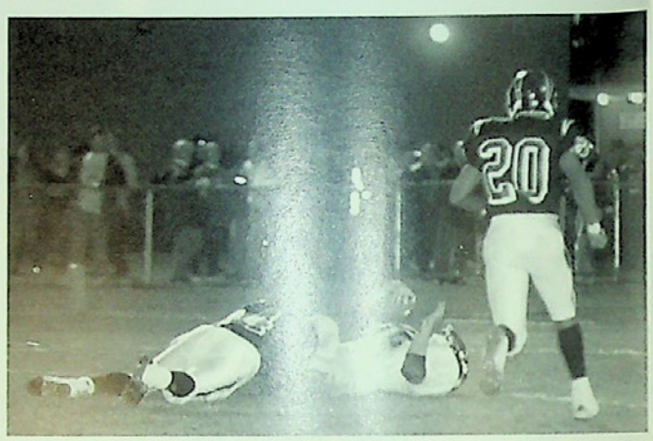
through ...athletics

▲ The key to a successful offense is finding a balance between the use of the running and passing games. Here, quarterback Adam Mihalko guns another perfect spiral across the field for a Liberty first down.

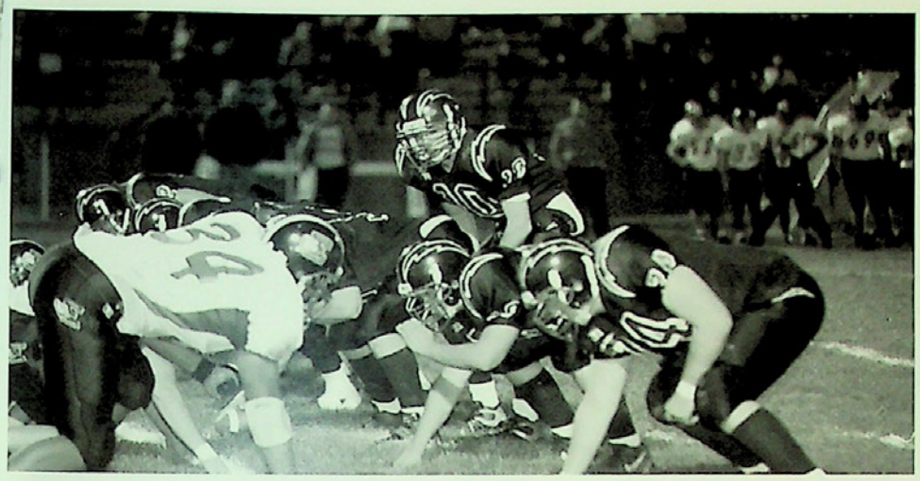
The strength of Liberty's football team has always been its ability to work together to overcome any obstacle, no matter how large it might be. It was exactly this attribute that helped this year's team successfully get through what could have otherwise been a frustrating season. Under the leadership of senior captains Scott Gould, Darren Mason, and George Yasso, the key to the team's victories was a well balanced combination of both seasoned veterans and talented first year players. Although the team did have its share of disappointments this year -- finishing with an overall record of 4-6 -- the climax of the season was an always uplifting victory over Freedom. The dedication and hard work that is so characteristic of Liberty football will keep the team strong for years to come.



let"s get it on football

◄ Senior Darren Mason uses speed and maneuvering to evade the Easton defenders. Mason finished his Liberty football career with 4,017 yards, more than anyone in the school's history.

► Having gotten past all the offensive blockers, six Liberty players pile on top of an Easton running back, stopping him short of a first down. It was Liberty's ability to work as a team that made them so competitive.



◀ Junior Adam Mihalko calls out the signals as he prepares to take the snap. Assuming the starting quarterback position just this year, Mihalko managed to pull off a very impressive season.

▲ Liberty's "iron" defensive line prepares for battle; there's no way that anyone is getting through them.

▼ Coach Heffernan gives advice to his fatigued players during a time out. Despite all of the talent on Liberty's team, proper coaching was very important in the team's wins this year.

"Despite a rough start, it was amazing how we pulled together for a great season." Lawrence Bernard

The secret to a winning varsity football team can be found in the talent of their JV and freshmen squads. These boys work hard to prove to the crowd, their opponent, and most importantly themselves, that they have what it takes to come out on top. That determination is what fueled these future varsity players into a winning season. Shutting out five of their opponents led the Hurricanes to a 7-3 record, letting everyone know what direction LHS football is headed in future years.

▲ These freshmen are anxious to get in the action of their first game.

Year after year, the boys soccer team is full of surprises. After an incredible season, including a 3-0 victory over State College, the team made their way to the second round of districts. The team owes much of its success to senior captain David Andrew. According to coach Kalman Sarkozy, "If I had to single one guy out, it's David. When I needed to improve a position, I gave it to Dave." Another key player this year was senior Marcos Cofre, who had the honor of being on the all-state team, and was named as The Morning Call's "Athlete of the Week." With freshmen like Matt Eichenlaub and Alex Toulouse -- who both started varsity games -- Coach Sarkozy is looking forward to next season.

The JV Hurricane boys soccer team had a season full of teamwork and concentration. Coached by Eric Bellucci and Craig Katynsk, the team consisted of 17 skilled players. The team knew what the word teamwork meant and applied it to all of their games. The team's biggest victory was a 2-1 win over Easton. Coach Bellucci is expecting much improvement for next year as the team hopes to earn championship gold.

"We had a great year." ~Monica Ney

With tons of enthusiasm, sportsmanship, and commitment, the Hurricane volleyball team shined brightly this year. The six seniors on the team have been playing together for four years, and they ended their high school careers with a bang. The players cooperated and worked hard all season long, which brought them to Districts; and they ended the season with an amazing record of 11 wins and only five losses. Despite the demanding practice schedule, the girls managed to have a lot of fun throughout the season, and they "tore it up" on the court.

▲ Using all their power, Adriene Snyder and Joanna Canlas jump to block their opponent's ball. Strength was a key to victory for these girls. Practice was tough, but when it came time to play, it was worth it.

▼ Monica Ney gives everything she has by going for the ball and communicating with her teammates. The seniors on the team showed excellent leadership for the underclassmen and kept the team's spirit high.

Led by two sophomores and supported by nine enthusiastic freshmen girls, the 1999-2000 JV volleyball team was one of the best teams Liberty has seen in many years. The girls worked extremely hard and gave a huge team effort. Their diligence paid off as they concluded the season with an outstanding record of 14 wins and only one loss. Their spirit and hours of practice time proved to take them to the top.

► Heather Rodenbach uses her strength and expertise to hit the ball into the air for her teammates to launch it over the net. The girls worked together to have fun and take victories over almost all the other teams.

► Melissa Maioriello and Dawn Peipher smile as they get ready to win their game. The girls' strong friendship lasted throughout the whole season. Every practice and every game was fun because of the team's close relationships.

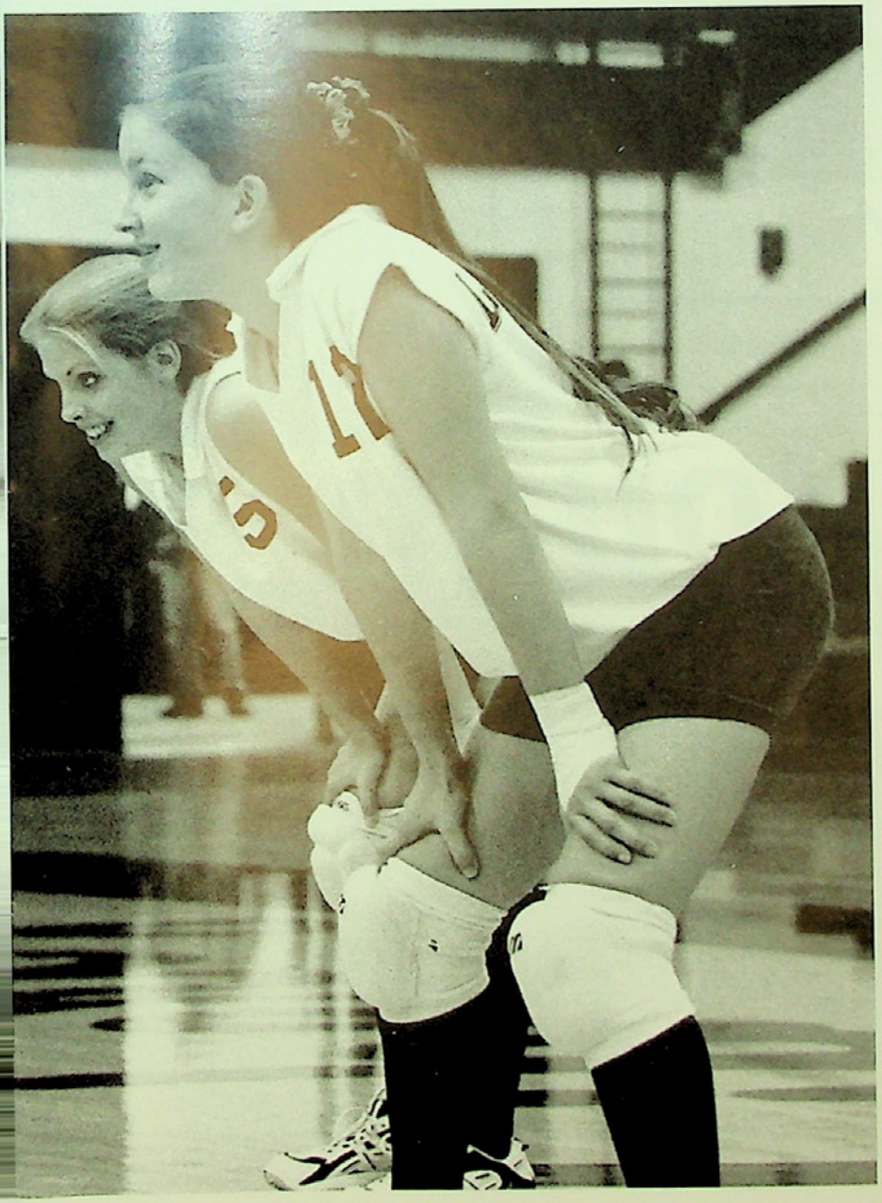
▲ As Hillary Prutzman flies into the air, she decides to put her skills from practice to use. Hard work paid off for these girls.

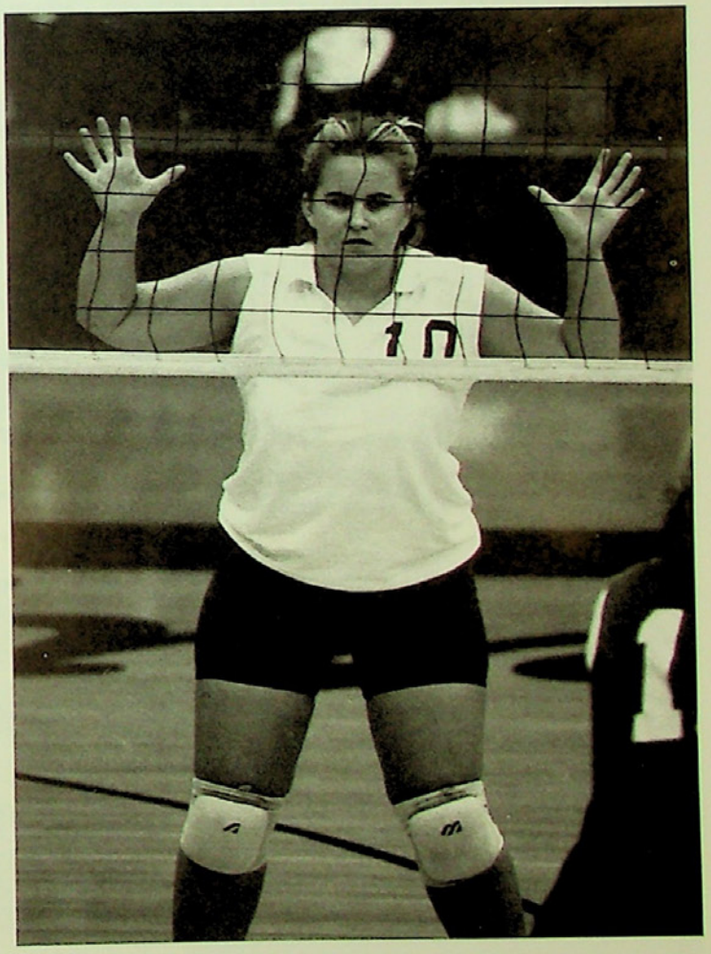
▲ Melissa Maioriello waits for the ball as she plans her strategy for the next play. Concentration and preparation helped the team defeat their opponents.

▲ Nicole Vidonya serves the ball with outstanding skill. The girls tried to start off every play the best they could.

"We all give 100% effort." ~Lauren Koch



▼ Staring down her opponent, Liz Skelly sets herself up for a block. The power of intimidation was an important aspect that was never forgotten by the team.



The girls field hockey team perfectly demonstrated the spirit of Liberty High School. Throughout the season the girls never gave up. They were out on the field five days a week, combining their skill, effort, and most of all their positive attitude toward each other and the game. The team showed improvement from previous seasons, and overall the players demonstrated tremendous talent. The girls' unrelenting enthusiasm kept the team close, as they stuck together and stood by each other through thick and thin.

"Even though the season was tough, we always gave it our all." ~ Emily Mellor ▲ Donna Attieh and Coach Tanya Thear discuss some goalkeeping strategies during a time out. Donna always guarded the goal with all her might.

▼ Driving the ball with hurricane force, Natalie van den Heuvel demonstrates the concentration and skill that is essential for a good field hockey game.

◄ With all her determination, Ashleigh College shows her opponent who is the toughest field hockey player. Liberty always fought to the end during the games.

▼ With fierce intensity, Natalie Kvacky concentrates on her teammates' battle for victory. Although injured toward the beginning of the season, she stayed with the team and cheered them on.

► Putting all her strength into the play, Emily Traupman drives the ball, hoping that a teammate will score a goal down the field. Communication and cooperation were key components to the team's winning games.

The underclassmen on the junior varsity field hockey team practiced right alongside the older girls and worked equally as hard as the varsity team. They gave their all each and every day, whether they were at practice or facing an opposing team. The players demonstrated great skill and endurance as the season progressed, always supporting each other and never giving up. In addition, the girls formed great friendships with one another and shared many memorable moments on and off the field.

◄ These happy field hockey players show the true meaning of sports: to have fun! The Liberty girls kept smiling all season long.

Don't call it a comeback! What a season this sensational boys team had. Losing their #1 and #2 runners last year, while their rival team, Easton, lost no one, the season looked dismal. To make matters worse, one of the top runners was injured before the season started. These guys trained hard during the summer and throughout the fall, from running 12 miles a day to sprint workouts on the track. They won their League Meet, came in second in their District Meet, earning their way to the State meet where they did quite well.

Those who don't play golf can't understand the dedication and perseverance it takes to become good at it. This year, the time and effort put in by members of the golf team paid off. Led by experienced seniors Jarrett Brown, Tommy Haytmanek, Chris Price, and Bryan Shay, the additions of several new and outstanding underclassmen helped them form a competitive team. They rounded out their 8-6 season with a strong seventh place showing at the League tournament at Shawnee. Sensational freshman Alex Knoll qualified for the state tournament and placed 27th out of 72 with rounds of 81 and 77. Though several seniors will be graduating at the end of the year, the young players who will remain can look forward to many more years of great golf on a strong Liberty team.

► Two Liberty golfers head off down the fairway after hitting enormous drives. Strong tee shots were key in many of Liberty's victories.

▲ Senior Bryan Shay searches for his ball, apparently pleased with the day's round. Strong senior leadership was one of the forces that helped the team to a winning season.

▲ Coach Steve Bradley patiently waits for all of the rounds to be finished. Bradley did an outstanding job this year in his first season as head coach.

"It was having really talented golfers from each class that helped make us a strong team this year."

With no graduating seniors this year, all of the girls are looking forward to next season, when they plan to show their opponents just how much their hard work has paid off.

During the frigid months of January and February, one of the highlights at Liberty is the always successful season of the varsity boys basketball team. Th was no exception. ▼ Coach Rick Costello gives advise to his fatigued players as they take a breather during a timeout. It was proper coaching from Costello and his assistants that turned a group of great basketball players into a great basketball team.

A varsity basketball team will only be successful until the players graduate, unless there is a strong underclassman base from which to form the new team. This year, the junior varsity and freshmen teams proved that there is a bright future for Liberty basketball while accomplishing some impressive feats themselves. With records of 13-4 and 7-12 respectively, the two teams showed that there are a number of sophomores and freshmen who are very capable of assuming the positions on the varsity team when the large groups of seniors graduates. After an outstanding year for all three teams, next year promises to be just as good and probably better.

► A Freedom forward goes in for a lay-up, only to find Lawrence White of Liberty in his face. The shot is blocked as Freedom's chances of winning the game get smaller and smaller.

▼ There is no way that Bobby Keiderling and Eric Eggleston are letting this Freedom player get by them. The number of steals by Liberty's JV team are what helped them win several of their games by such wide margins.

► Bobby Keiderling, Judd Walter, Robbie Biggs, and Lawrence White sprint after a loose ball in the hopes of picking up another field goal.

◀ Robbie Biggs leaps past his defenders moments before the ball rolls off of his fingertips and into the basket. Biggs was one of the many sophomores who was good enough to get some varsity playing time this season.

Sweat, tears, and ice are the three key ingredients that make up the sport of hockey. The 1999-2000 ice hockey team got down to business early in the season and scored several key wins. Overall, the team finished with a 9-11 record. Even though many of the players were new and inexperienced, the team became strongly linked by the end of the season. All of the Liberty goal tenders will be returning next year, and with another year of experience under their belts, the team hopes to make a run at the LVSHL championships.

Imagine yourself in a dark room, lying on a mat, trying to hit the bull's-eye from 50 feet away. The only way you know how you are shooting is to have Coach Jody Miller judge your shots by looking through a scope. While this may seem to be a daunting task, it is common practice for rifle team members. In order to be successful in target shooting, concentration and extreme focus are required. Although this year's team was relatively inexperienced, they are bound to improve next year.

For safety precaution, all the shooters wear heavy jackets. This is only one of the many rules and regulations of the range.

▲ The old bunt and base trick was effectively used by Matt Vel in a nail-biting game. The bases were loaded for Liberty's power hit to take them all home.

◄ Tim Buck received the signal from the catcher for one o flaming fast balls to strike out his adversary.

America's favorite pastime, baseball, is also one of the most competitive sports. Throughout America, kids have been playing catch with their fathers, hoping to someday make their high school team. This creates fierce competition not only within Liberty, but throughout the district and even the state. The Hurricanes had a stormin' season; sweeping through the Mountain Valley Conference with much success. Since the Hurricanes aren't losing many of their players next year, the team will have a strong foundation for the upcoming season. So a warning goes out to all teams who dare to oppose our team because it's one, two, three strikes you're out at the old ball game.

▲ Coach Dudeck calls his men off the field for a brief huddle to decide the most effective way to halt the opposing team's advances around the bases.

◀ Anthony Giering anxiously waits and attempts to anticipate whatever the pitcher is able to throw at him, no pun intended.

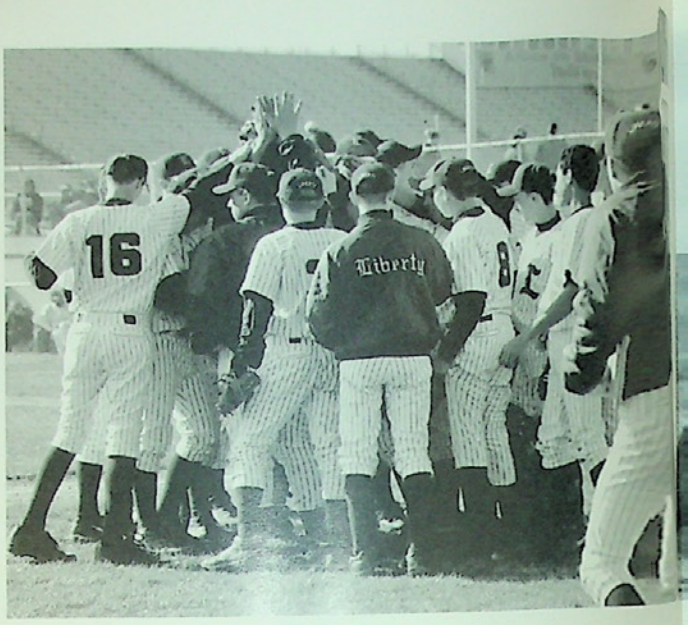
► The team regroups and rejoices at the end of a long, hard, but extremely satisfying win.



◄ And here's the pitch. It's a strike, but what else would you expect from an all-star pitcher like Matt Lubensky.

For the love of the game. That's exactly what motivates these guys to get out on the field day in and day out. In all the conditions mother nature could throw at them, they still practiced nonstop. The drive in their hearts and minds kept them there for long hours throwing the ball back and forth, running drills, and brushing up on their batting skills. The JV players don't live in the shadow of the varsity team, they make their own shadow with a very impressive record. Next year these jv players will get the turn to shine on the varsity, while the rookies join JV.

◄ "Watch where you go," doesn't apply here. Like any baseball player, Erik Starner keeps his eye on the ball to know whether he should keep running or go back a base.

Higher, faster,and further was the common mind set for all the Hurricane competitors of the track and field team. There was a number of seniors lost last year, but as a result of superb coaching, extreme dedication, and a lot of hard work, the season turned out successful. The boys team had numerous outstanding performances and came very close to being undefeated. A sport that has 18 different events and at least five people involved in each event creates a very diverse team. The diversity of the team ensured that there was never a dull or depressed moment. Win or lose, these guys were always in high spirits; they knew how to have fun and win at the same time.

With the number of girls who participated this year, the Hurricane track and field team had no other possibilty but success. In both the running events and the field events, all the girls strived for excellence. They practiced hard in all kinds of weather and performed with skill and intensity when it came time to compete. Smiling through it all, the girls team ended the season with an awesome record, having only one loss. Together the girls encouraged each other, cheered each other on, and stayed strong. The girls were pleased with the season, they had a lot of fun, and the team looks promising for the upcoming years.

▲ Leading the way to a win, Corry Marcincin passes baton to Molly Gufrovich in the 3200 meter relay. Re were important events in the meets, and the girls wo hard to make their baton exchanges smooth and quick.

▼ Heidi Ruth, Molly Lare, and Molly Gufrovich lead the pack in one of the distance events. These girls worked especially hard, building endurance and strength.

▼ Megan Haas uses all her strength to go far in the long jump event. In addition to running, jumping was a key event as well; earning precious points for the Hurricanes in close meets.

▲ Javelin throwers Emily Harlow and Laura Dologite shared not only a great athletic experience, but an awesome friendship!

Despite some major setbacks- -- including the injury of star player Jessie Papesh at th beginning of the season -- the girls soccer team managed to make a slight rebound. According to head Coach Kalman Sarkozy, the girls improved with each g throughout the season. Other players this year included ju Annie Rodgers, who took a leading in her rookie season, senior Sarah Go and team captain Emily Mellor. At the s time, the girls developed a strong sense of unity, both on and off the field. With four fresh starting this year, the team hopes to improve in future seasons.

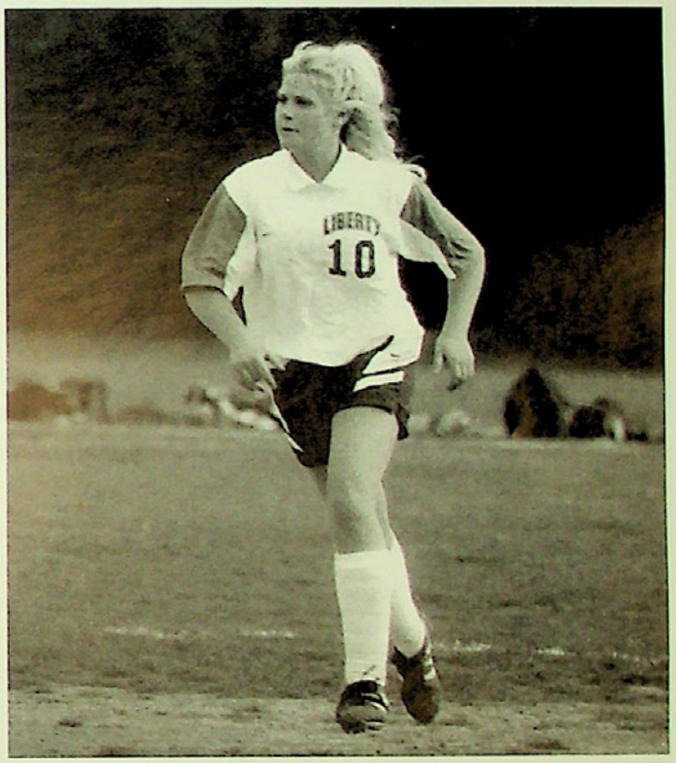
◀ JV girls are excited to go and beat Freedom. These players are loaded with school and team spirit. Liberty's girls soccer program has grown so much this year that it now has a junior varsity team. These girls will make up an all-star team in years to come.



▲ Julie Hickey is a speed demon on the soccer field, beating all of her opponents. Speed is a major factor for success in soccer.

◀ Sarah Gosling heads the ball away from her opponent. According to Coach Sarkozy, "she has greatly improved since last year." Gosling scored two amazing goals this season; one led the 'Canes to victory and the other goal tied a game." Her talent added much to the team this year," added Sarkozy.

► Co-captain Neiad Ammary, the team leader in kills, prepares to hit another powerful serve. It was the team's strength in all aspects of the game that made them so competitive this year.

boys' volleyball

People often say that practice makes perfect and nothing is as valuable as experience. This year's boys' volleyball team proved that. Led by senior captains Neid Ammary, John Kessack, and Joe Morgan, who all made the 1st Team All MVC, the combination of veteran seniors and several talented juniors, including Gil Barros and Matt Reinhart, made Liberty's team a force to be reckoned with. Although they lost several games by very close margins, it was a successful season both as a team and for certain individuals. Setter Joe Morgan finished the season with over 1,000 assists in his high school career, while hitter Neiad Ammary passed the 300 career kill mark at the tail end of the season. A good showing at Districts was the culmination of an outstanding season.

▼ Joe Morgan kneels down as he desperately attempts to set the ball up and keep the rally going. Morgan, with over 1,000 career assists, was obviously successful.

▲ John Kessack leaps in the air as he returns Freedom's best hit. Kessack, along with the other two captains, was instrumental in the leadership and success of the team.

◀ Neiad Ammary gets down low so he can put the ball in perfect position to be set. While Neiad's specialty is kills, it is necessary for a good volleyball player to be versatile, which is what makes Liberty's team so great.

◀ Senior Miguel Reyes stares down his opponent. Intimidation is a very big part of the game.

▲ Edward Melendez sets the ball high into the air so that one of his teammates can spike it. The sequence from bump to set to spike is what wins volleyball games.

Varsity Coach Markovich expressed some concerns at the beginning of the year over the fact that over half of his varsity would be graduating at the end of the year. T made it especially important to build up a strong base of underclassm who would be able to assume the positions on the varsity team n year. Not only did the JV team do that, but they managed to pull some pretty impressive feats themselves. Under the advisement of Co Nancy Romig, the team was comprised of a balance between sophomo and freshmen, which made for a combinat on of both one year veter and rookies. Although they finished the season with a rati disappointing record, the experience the boys gained is making the future look good.

◀ John Ditroia kneels down as Nate Williams tosses the ball high in the air for his serve. A good serve is a combination of power, precision, and hours of practice.

▼ Edward Melendez attempts to catch his breath before he is signalled to serve again.

◀ Walter Correa makes an amazing vertical leap as he goes up for the kill that will put the game away. It took both Walter and his teammates hours of practice to get hits like this one perfect.

▲ John Ditroia, Walter Correa, and Luis Perez crouch and prepare for their opponents to serve the ball. Awareness and lightning quick reflexes are the difference between a good and great volleyball team.

love for the game kept the Hurricane tennis team's spirits up this year. Since there we no seniors on the team, the younger members really had to step up, take charge, and p well. And that they did! The guys worked hard all season long, practicing every day after school. They improved their skills and teamwork tremendously and gave the other te tough competition at the matches. Most importantly, these guys had tons of fun together both at practice and at matches. They were excited about their quality performances and a looking forward to an even better season next year.

▲ Tom Truong and Seena Shekari use all their power while practicing serves. Perfecting their timing and strength allowed them to have awesome serves in the matches.

► Matt Laubenstein follows through on a powerful hit. "No one is gonna stop the Hurricanes!" he thinks, as the ball flies over the net out of his opponent's reach.

◄ Junior Craig Woodley concentrates on technique as he fires the ball back over the net. The underclassmen took a leading role since there were no seniors on the team.

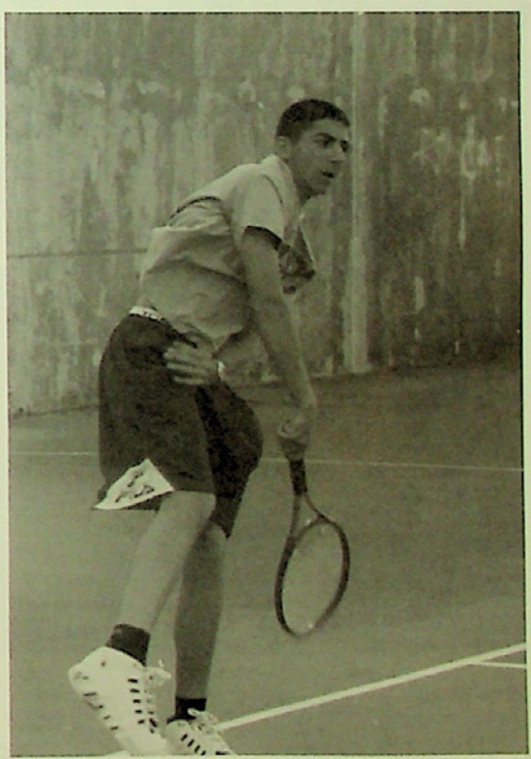
► Seena Shekari definitely knows how to tear it up on the court, and he shows it! All of the opposing teams were intimidated by Liberty's tough guys.

◄ "Oh yeah!" yells Pat Dredge as he performs a perfect shot in practice. Hours of practice after school paid off and competitors were astounded by the Hurricanes' talent.



◄ Adams Baker enjoys the company of his teammates and smiles because he is pleased with the team's improvement. Smiling and laughing always make the sport more enjoyable.

No athletic event at Liberty would be the same without the Hurricane cheerleading squad. Always smiling, these talented girls cheered their hearts out; driving many of Liberty's sports teams on to victory. Besides doing routines at the pep rallies and cheering at games, the girls also traveled to Myrtle Beach, South Carolina, where they placed third in the NCA national competition. Hours of practicing cheers, stunts, and gymnastics definitely helped the girls, who looked awesome performing. In addition to the fun of cheerleading, the friendships the girls made lasted throughout the sports seasons and beyond. The girls always showed the unity and school spirit that makes the Liberty community so full of life.

▲ The varsity girls get all decked out for a night on the town in Myrtle Beach. The trip a fun, successful, and memorable experience for the squad. The year-round work paid off the trip turned out to be a great accomplishment for the squad.

◀ Practice makes perfect! The varsity squad gets their moves down so they can impress the judges at the competition.

The enthusiastic young ladies on the JV and freshmen cheerleading squads shared their smiles and spirit throughout the entire year. They perfected their moves with lots of practice, and when it came time to perform, the girls shined with talent as their technique improved. Through their energetic cheers and awesome stunts, they encouraged and motivated Liberty's junior varsity sports teams. Cheerleading is a huge part of the game and the Hurricane cheerleaders always did their part to bring on a victory. These girls were always ready to show their true colors -- red and blue!

▲ Jamie Pasquariello, Hillary Wurth, Jessica McLaughlin, Alicia Vasquez, and Carisa Lawrence show their spirit by supporting the football team. The guys were lucky to have these girls cheering them on!

▲ It's hard work but we love it! The JV cheerleaders smile as they happily take a break from pumping up the crowd at the pep rally.

▲ Jessica McLaughlin, Karly Berger, Shannon Kohler, and Melissa Huyter impress the crowd with their awesome form at a football game. The girls' hard work definitely paid off as the year progressed, and they looked great.

▼ These lovely cheerleaders--Casey Spengler, Nikki Hess, and Michelle Kosciah--know all about the friendships that come from working together as a squad.

"we had fun, and we made a lot of good friends." ~ Tara Ortiz

▼ Shannon Kohler, Danielle Goodine, Elizabeth Heist, Jill Klessig, and Melissa Huyter are happy about the great friendships they made.

◀ Shouting a cheer, these JV girls excite the crowd and the team at a Friday night football game. Performing right along side of the varsity girls was a good experience for these future varsity Hurricane cheerleaders. They learned skills and moves and had a great time doing it!

Who ever said girls have to play nice? For the fourth year in a row, the senior powder puff players beat Freedom. The win kicked off the 1999 spirit week, setting the standards for the football team with a score of 22-16. The powder puff team was led by the senior cheerleaders and majorettes. Backed up by the juniors and sophomores, the girls showed Freedom who really was on top.

◀ Let the games begin! Despite the friendly handshake, Christie Strunk warns her Freedom opponents of the uphill struggle that they are about to face. Christie played hard, scoring two touchdowns in the game.

▼ The girls stand side by side as they cheer on their teammates. The strong friendships formed between the girls lasted long, on and off the field.

◀ Coach Kresge debriefs the team at halftime, "Even though we're winning, don't get arrogant and keep playing hard."

▶ Maria Lopiccolo takes off up field trying to return the kickoff. Strong special teams played a key role in yet another LHS Powder Puff victory over Freedom.

◀ Carissa Lawrence, with determination in her eyes, contemplates her next move. It was this determination that helped the girls defeat Freedom.

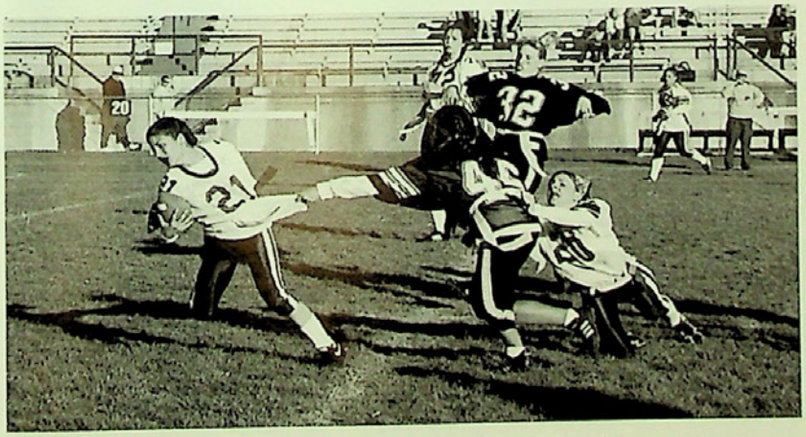
▲ Show 'Em How It's Done! That's exactly what the Liberty girls did. Sorry Freedom, but you still can't beat us.

► Laces out--Jessica Mill kicks off, and a quick turnover helps Liberty score six more.



▲ Kristi Nann desperately claws at a Freedom adversary trying to block her from flagging Maria Lopiccolo. Easy girls, it's only a game.

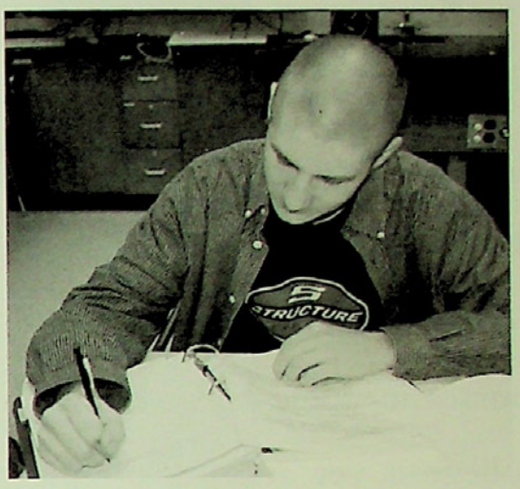
Life Liberty

& the pursuit of happines

doing it our way



through ...academics

Liberty High school is working hard to prepare students for their futures. With the many opportunities that are offered, students can easily open doors to a successful career. Students can choose to learn academics half day at Liberty and spend the other half at Vo-tech learning a trade. Vo-tech offers various trades such as carpentry, masonry, fashion design, and graphic design. Preparing students for the real world, Vo-tech is a great alternative to college. Liberty itself also offers various courses in home economics, graphic design, wood shop, and computers. College is yet another popular choice made by many Liberty students. Numerous students opt to go to an Ivy League School or a Four Year College. The Bethleh community and surrounding areas offer a plethora of colleges -- Moravian, Lehigh, Lafayet Churchman's Business School, Allentown College of St. Francis de Sales, Cedar Crest Colle East Stoudsburg, and Kutztown. Whatever your career path, opportunities are plentiful.

one step ahead

competition

Losing is easy, but these students have never taken the easy way out. All of these students stand strong in the face of opposition and never settle for second best. This year's competitive teams have set new standards of excellence and are still striving to be better. It is the dedicated individuals who aren't afraid to depend on their own intuition who will pull ahead in the end. Even though the team is always there to cheer each member on, it's still every man for himself. As they are overcome with anxiety, they realize that their goal is only a few steps ahead.

▲ Peter Berridge sure isn't afraid to show off his project that wa entered into the Allentown Business School Olympics this year. H competed in the persuasive speaking category.

▲ Mohit Desai is certainly taking chess practice seriously as he anticipates his opponent's next move. Who ever said that chess wasn't exciting?

▼ Desmond Ling and Seena Shekari are testing the stability of their tower during the Science Olympics. Their project took a lot of hard work, which certainly paid off.

▲ The science club was awarded third place at the Science Olympics and their next stop is the state competition at Juniata College. Regionals was yet another victory over Freedom who placed fourth in the competition.

◀ The Scholastic Scrimmage team practices hard for their next competition. Even though these students are very intelligent, they need to be prepared for any challenge.

The turn of the millennium has brought about many new changes in technology and science. Liberty has completely embraced these advances, as seen in the many computer labs and interactive classrooms throughout the school. The Internet is available in all classrooms, helping students to find a broader range of information. Liberty's new science building also provides students with state-of-the-art scientific equipment. With more advances and updates in progress, Liberty will continue to lead other schools in technological advances.

hurricanes have carried with them a reputation for making themselves noticed. Whether they're spectators at a sporting event or participating in a school or community activity, the crowd from Liberty is always heard. From the cheerleaders shouting their cheers and leading the roaring and enthusiastic fans, to the countless speakers who have come to Liberty to educate the students on numerous topics, to the trained voices of the various choruses singing in harmony, the Liberty population really knows how to use their voices.

Achieving goals and striving for excellence seems to come easy to Liberty students. There are close to 200 students in the National Honor Society, six National qualifiers from DECA, six National Merit Scholars, and many more students and clubs doing an awesome job everyday. Our sports teams also show a great aptitude of excellence. Just take a walk through the gym lobby and it's obvious that Liberty is, and has been, one of the greatest schools in the Lehigh Valley.

▲ If there is one thing that comes to mind when people think about Liberty , it's our infamous Grenadier Band. This year, they made the long trip to England and did a great job!

► Here's another winner! Rachel Kratzer placed third in swimming districts at Parlkand High School.

Liberty is the home of many diverse backgrounds where everyone comes together under one roof. Students celebrate one another's different customs and traditions in an effort to spread understanding and appreciation throughout the school. There are many organizations and clubs that are devoted to international and cultural learning, which include the foreign language clubs, Latino Youth Leadership, and International Student Council. Liberty annually welcomes foreign exchange students who come to get a taste of the life of a typical American teenager. This year, students came to Bethlehem from Germany, Japan and Sweden. The wide variety of people unite as the Liberty High School community.

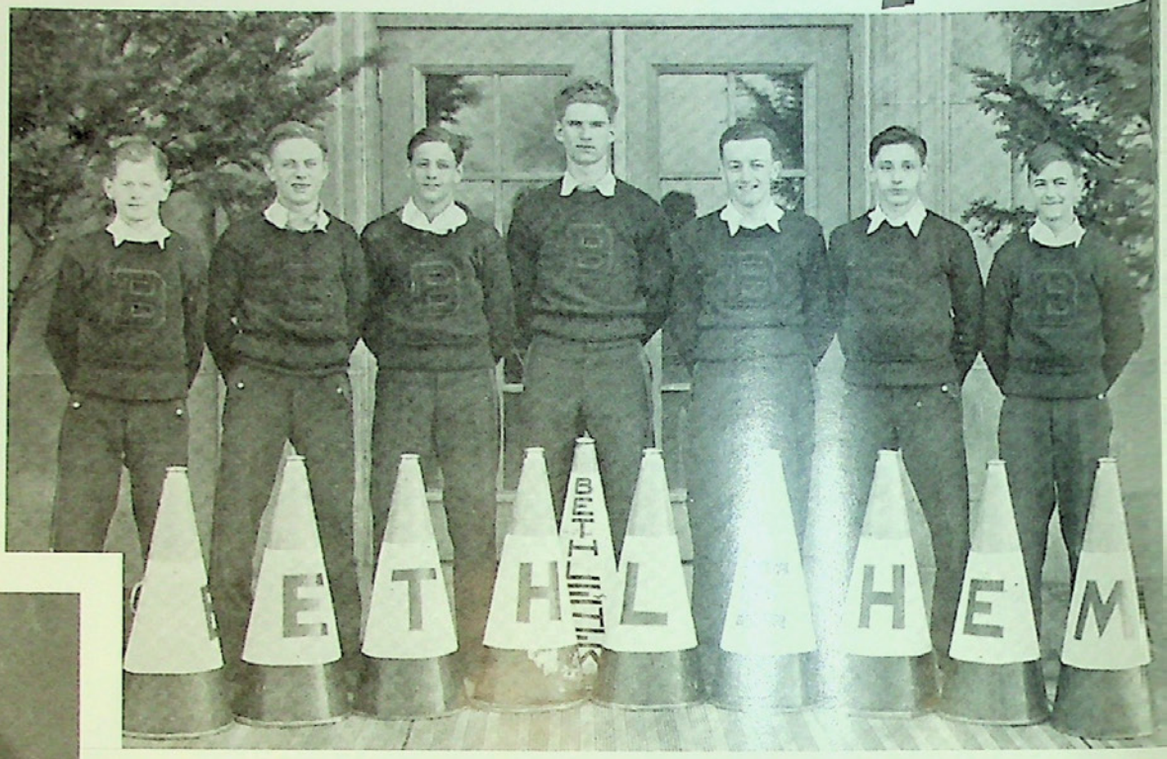
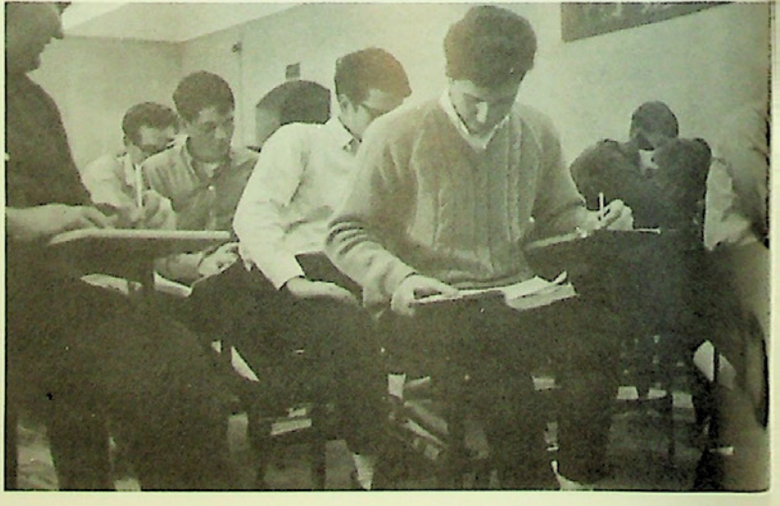
remember the pas





In a world of change, the spirit behind Liberty has remained a constant. Despite numerous transitions, including a name change, building additions and reconstructions, and the graduation of 78 classes, Liberty has continued to be a center for learning and excellence. Liberty has earned a reputation that will endure the test of time. Through it all, students have grown together -- keeping their hearts and minds loyal to their school and community.

celebrate the future

We're here. In 1996 we became united as the class of 2000. Never before, and never again, will there ever be another class as prestigious. Memories of us, the class that led the school into the next century, will remain etched in Liberty's history indefinitely. Throughout our years at Liberty, we have all evolved and grown. During this transformation we have had unforgettable experiences, both good and bad. Now, as we walk down the aisle at graduation, we all take the memories and friendships we have built, and we leave our amiable contributions behind. From here, we go our separate ways, but the lessons we have learned will always be remembered.

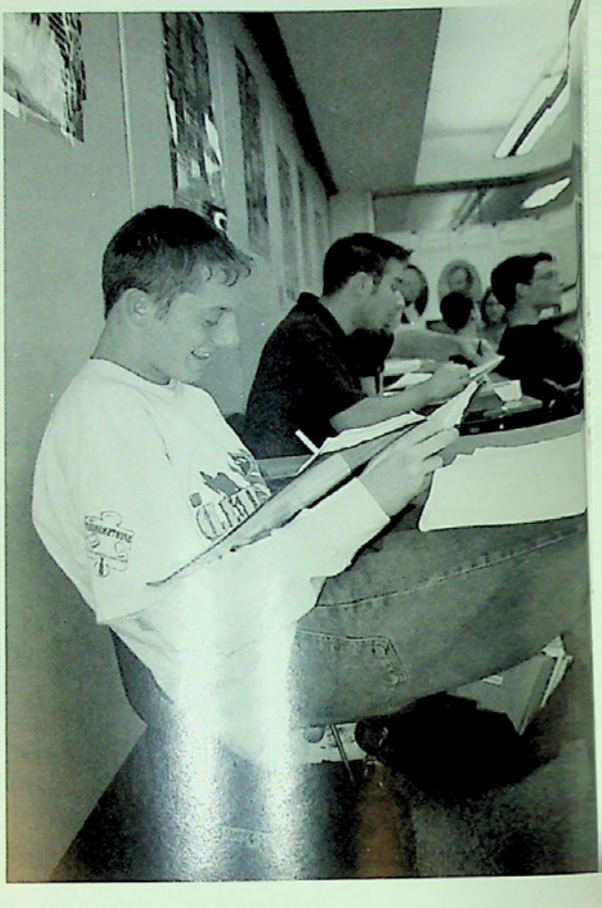
word to your moms
class of 2001

This year's junior class has definitely added a whole new meaning to the word "spirit." More enthusiatic than ever, this class has combined their energy and sense of humor to add to the excitement of the new millennium. The juniors have symbolized their extreme pride with their class t-shirts and their president, John Misinco. Fearless in the face of competition, the juniors have never been afraid to take charge. Along with Misinco, class officers Nick D'Egidio, Annie Rodgers, and Joey Brezack, planned the prom and organized the Halloween dance earlier in the year. With only one more year to go, the juniors are always ready for what time has in store for them.



▲ Chris Christian is having a little too much fun in history class. Gee whiz! Mrs. Abbott sure knows how to make class exciting.

▲ Treasurer Joey Brezack, Secretary Annie Rodgers, President John Misinco, and Vice President Nick D'Egidio. What a motley lookin' crew!

▼ Amber Qualley and Kate Long come together after class to share a couple laughs.

▲ Shiela Bennick and Chris Billiard really need to get to class, but since when has anyone been on time?

▲ Carolina Velasquez and Tony Lombardo get close at lunch to catch up with one another and share some good times. There is definitely a strong friendship between these two.

▼ Sean Crawford and Amy Rosenfeld sure got dressed up for the occasion. What are they trying to impress?

▲ This class definitely shows their school spirit as they sport their cool hats during this year's spirit week.

▼ These energetic girls always stick together and they certainly know how to have a good time. School's a great place to catch up on all the latest gossip.

▼ Diana Garcia, Yaridany Arias, and Yaditza Arias are all hanging out in the nurse's office. Hey, they don't look too sick to me.

How can you tell the Class of 2002 is proud of who they are? Their class t-shirt says it all with the bold numbers "02" printed across the back. You can recognize a sophomore from a mile away! The class officers Chantel Berrios, Judd Walter, Robby Opp, and Wendy Li did an awesome job in getting the whole class involved in school spirit boosters such as spirit week and pep rallies. Not only is the Class of 2002 great at showing their spirit, but they are now excellent spellers, thanks to a few sophomore guys! They were willing to take the shirts off their back (literally), to lead their class straight to the top!

The Class of 2003 is definitely "Larger than Life." The freshman class, led by Anthony Lucas, Natashady Lopez, Rebeca Cordeiro, and Heather Rodenbach, is a great addition to the Liberty family. Freshmen may be known as the runts of the school, but this lively group stands tall at pep rallies, shouting out their sch spirit. This class can easily be recognized cheering Liberty on at various sporting events. Fitt in with the rest of LHS, the freshmen actively participate in numerous activities, and are pro to say that they are a part of the Class of 2003.

Darren Mason and Christie Str

despite the loss to Easton on October 7, 1999, the spirited Liberty students gathered the following night ready to party like it was 1999 (alright, so it was). Nearly 1200 people danced the night away in the old gym that was transformed into a fantastic whirl of lights, music, fun, and laughter. As Kelly Dyson said, "Man, it was one sweaty, hot dance, but definitely a night to remember." It was an exhilarating evening for all, especially Darren Mason and Christie Strunk, who were bestowed the honor of being the 1999 Homecoming King and Queen.

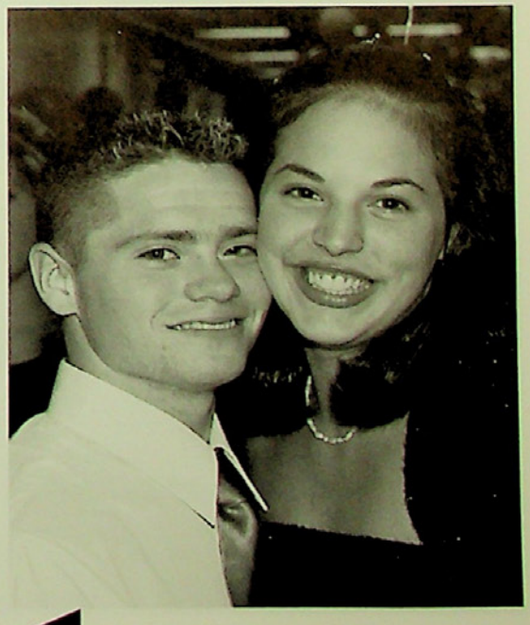
▲ Gleaming with smiles! Crystal Smith and Steph Keim are happy to be with friends on a night that they won't forget.

◀ These three lucky guys made sure to surround themselves with pretty girls to make the entrance of a lifetime at this year's dance. Who ever said you could have just one date? Todd Piervallo, Robert Burkit, and Aaron Signarovitz dropped that rule a long time ago.

▼ Robyn Young and her date are looking as cute as ever all dressed up for an evening of excitement.

▼ Flower girls and boy. Molly Fraust, Alison Chlebowski, and Zach Holt gathered the flowers to hand out to this years homecoming court.



Keeping the spirit alive! Despite changes made to Spirit Week 1999, the spirit, tradition, and pride behind the week was the same as always. Liberty students showed their support throughout the week by dressing up for various theme days- including Pajama Day, Hat/Sports Apparel Day, 70's Clash Day, Dress for Success Day, and the traditional Red and Blue Day. The enthusiasm displayed throughout the week was brought to the football game on Friday to help support Liberty in their victory over Freedom.

▲ Students worked together all week decorating the school to psyche everyone up for the Liberty/Freedom game. Awesome signs!

► Scott Gould is all ready for the game tonight, and Laura Gordy is ready to cheer him on to victory.

▼ Young Writer accepts submissions for its literary magazine from students throughout the school. Molly Fraust and Erin Blache sort through them to make their selections.

Liberty's character is built upon the thoughts and originality of its students. And what better way to display these creations than to put them in print. Working together on various staffs, students put time and energy into publications which capture the essence of Liberty. These works display the talent and creativity of students, keep everyone informed, and most importantly, make the priceless memories of high school last.

▲ Stressed for a deadline, Lindsay Birckhead and Alison Chlebowski rid their anger.

◀ Emily Ravelle works on the computer, putting together Young Writer, a magazine that captures the creativity of students at Liberty.

Under the direction of Greg MacGill and Kevin Long, the Grenadier Band continues to model itself after the traditional Coldstream Guards of England. Once again, the band made the trip overseas to wow audiences in England. The Orchestra, also directed by Mr. MacGill, had a very busy year performing in three different concerts. The Band and Orchestra are both comprised of dedicated, hard-working students who, through their year round efforts, add a little culture to Liberty.

leading the way
band front

If there is on thing we all can agree on here at Liberty, it's that we have one of the best bands in the country. One of the aspects that makes our band look so awesome at football games and concerts, is our band front. The colour guards give form and strength, while the majorettes add excitement and precision. Who could ever forget our infamous Bagpipe Corps? The music they add to some of our band songs is not only classic but it is also what differentiates our band and school from others. Whether they are on the football field or in a parade, they are keeping the spirit of Liberty High School alive.

▲ Claire Ganz (Valyn Williams), the official "airhead" of the group, expresses her concern and questions the simple, faultless plan. "Duh Claire!"

◀ Due to the small size of the cast, bonding came naturally. Here, the entire cast poses with their infamous director, Mr. Eric Smith.

From the moment the lights come up, the audience is enthralled in the story of an anniversary party gone wrong. At the home of Charles and Myra Brock in Long Island, Chris Gorman and her husband Ken discover the host Charlie has been shot, and Myra, the hostess, has disappeared. The insanity begins to unravel as the other guests arrive. Not wanting to get themselves wrapped up in a possible homicide/kidnapping, the men try to rationalize and think of cover ups just in case the police question them. As the "rumors" spread, the show grows more entertaining. Neil Simon's "Rumors" was a definite success for Liberty Theatre this year.

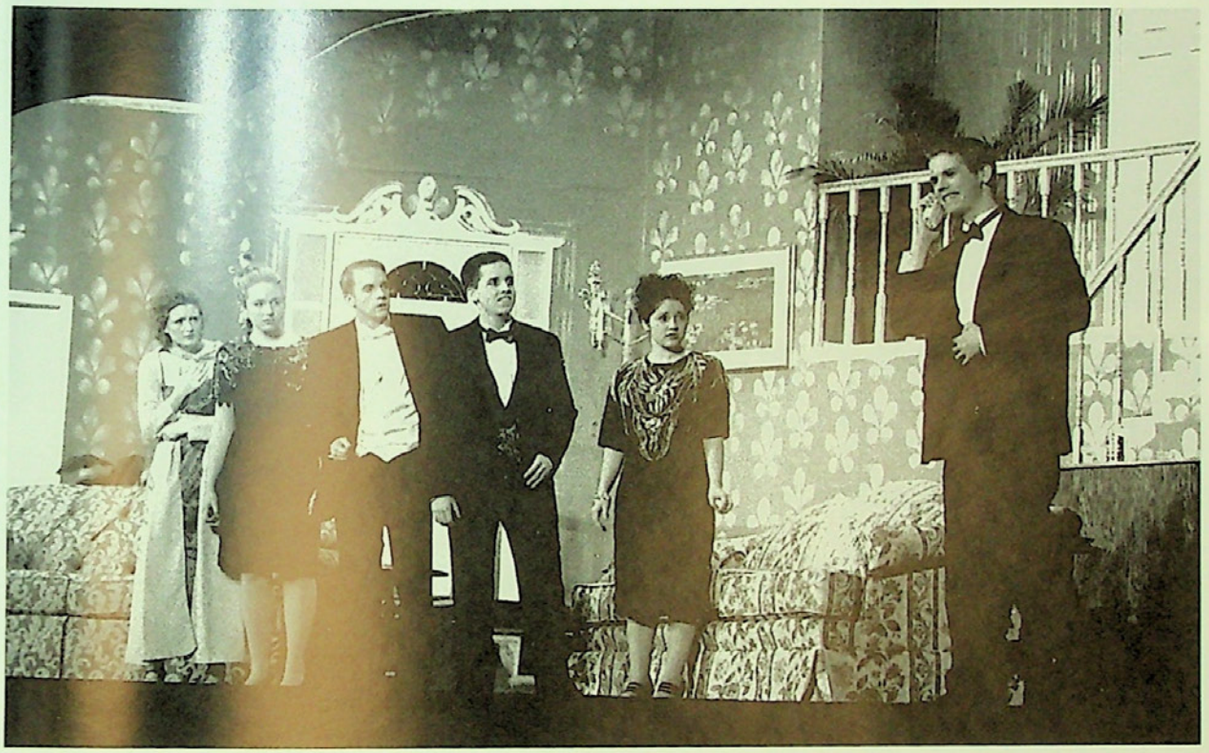
▼ Lenny Ganz (Colin Shay), nervous for his political future and being wrapped up in a potential suicide, drinks his problems away with a nice "Jack on the Rocks".

◄ Upon hearing the news, Cookie (Molly Fraust) is clearly distraught.

► Ernie Cusack (Yuri Laubach) loses all control and flips out when he hears the news of what has occurred in the Brock household.

◄ Nervous of what may happen as a result of the shooting, everyone stands in apprehension. It is unknown if Ernie (Yuri Laubach) will slip and tell the police the truth.



► Chris Gorman (Devin Santillo), known for her fondness for "the bottle", is scolded for her drunken state by Glen Cooper (Zach Fullman).

◄ Cookie (Molly Fraust), due to her "back spasms", demands the assistance and attention of everyone.

Premiering May 11, 2000, "Once Upon a Mattress" became the culminating performance on Liberty High School's 78 year old auditorium stage. The time-tried tale of the princess and the pea was retold with a slightly modern twist. With a princess from the bogs, a talkative queen, a mute king, and a handsome prince, the fairy tale came to life on Liberty's stage. Much of the credit goes to Director Eric Smith for the outstanding performance of the cast, crew, and orchestra. The costumes and choreography were designed by Stephanie Smith, and the play was made complete with vocal instruction from Gayle Justice. Madonna said it best when she said, "Express Yourself." From music to art to dance, Liberty students express themselves in many unique ways. The step team and breakdance club both awe the student body with their moves at pep rallies, while Young Writer Coffee Houses allow students to express themselves through songs and poetry. Different art classes, including photography, let students use their creativity to design projects. Just walking through the halls, many expressions can be seen on students' faces. For high school students, expression is one of the most important tools of communication.

If there's one thing that Liberty strives for, it is a strong and tight-knit community. That is why students work with one another to provide help where help is needed and partake in joint activities with those around us. Throughout the school year, students made many efforts to get out into the community and interact with younger kids, elderly people, and even students our own age. There's no doubt that Liberty is constantly attempting to be invovled with those around us in as many ways as possible.

Leading the way! Here at Liberty High School, you can always find people who are willing to offer their guidance and help to others. These exceptional students have demonstrated their leadership abilities in clubs, organizations, and classrooms within the school. They have a genuine concern for others and strive to be a positive influence in the lives of people not just at Liberty, but in the entire community. Serving as honorable role models and leaders for the rest of Liberty High School, they keep our school thriving.

Here at Liberty High School, we are always on the go! Each year, numerous studen embark on exciting trips. The Liberty Hi School Grenadier Band travels to vario destinations every other year, and travels every fo years across the seas to England and Scotland. Liberty cheerleaders travel all over the countr for competitions; this year they made their way to Myrtle Beach, South Carolina. The varsit basketball teams traveled all the way to Florida to represent Liberty in a tournament. Mar other clubs such as the Ski Club, Ecology Club, Math Club, DECA, and FBLA also take mar trips both in and out of the state. Being a part of Liberty High School means you have a opportunity to see the world.

Through the years, fashion has come to symbolize individuality and uniqueness here at Liberty. Fashion also seems to separate one group from the next depending on the group's sense of style. What defines style? There isn't a real definition because everyone sees style differently. From wallet chains to Abercrombie clothing, Liberty's got it all! Some people choose to steal the attention of the crowd with their outrageous looks while others manage to blend right in. Style is judged merely by others' reactions and what is "in" one month will be "out" the next. Fashions and trends are constantly changing. It doesn't matter what you wear; it's simply a matter of how good you look wearing it.

▲ Carla Hooe and Moe Schaeffer are sporting the casual of the day with blue jeans and simple tops. No need to g dressed up for the occasion.

pre-prom

All those plans and preparations for one memorable night. The girls and guys of Liberty aren't the only ones getting ready for prom! Liberty High School staff and junior class, led by president John Misinco and class advisors Mrs. Jen Smith and Mr. Mike Corrigan, put a lot into making Prom 2000, a night that can't be forgotten. On Friday, June second, almost 800 people attended Liberty's prom, "A Midsummer Night's Dream," at Iacocca Hall at Lehigh University. Junior Carin Amoroso said, "This years prom was awesome and all the great work our class did puts the pressure on next year's junior class!"

post prom

Post prom has become a tradition here at Liberty. It is a fun and safe way for students to spend their hours after prom. Each year there are different activities which attract students. This year students enjoyed the musical talent of Mama Jama. Throughout the night, Bouncy Boxing, Sumo Wrestling, Human Fly Wall, and a casino kept everyone busy. Post Prom proved once again to be a great experinece for all.

◀ Donna Attieh sure looks aggressive! I think she has been practicing in the sumo wrestling suits at home!

► Christen Mancini silences the crowd with her congratulations for the Class of 2000, and her words of encouragement for the future.

► Mr. Burkhardt congratulates Nathan Keim for all his many achievements and also for becoming the Liberty Scholar of 2000.

▲ Monica Ney helps fellow graduate Jeff Opp with his gown, making sur everything looks perfect for a night they will never forget.

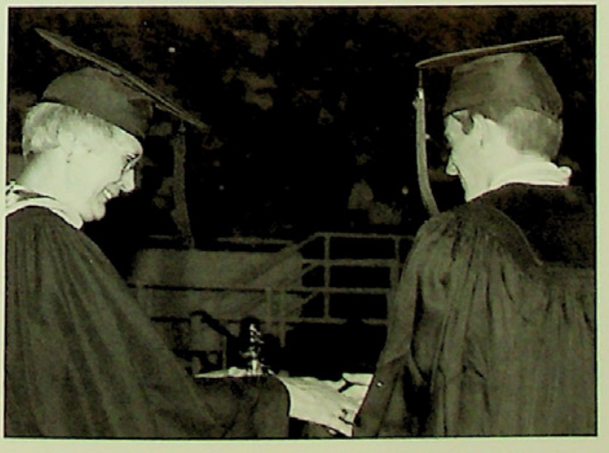
graduation

Ladies and gentlemen, Liberty High School proudly presents the Class of 2000. Four hundred seventy-five graduates gathered at Stabler Arena on June 14, 2000 for the commencement ceremony, along with over 100 faculty members. The evening began as Mr. Burkhardt gave due recognition to this years Liberty Scholar, Nathan Keim. A moment was taken to remember Lisa Campbell and Stacey Savitske, who will forever be part of Liberty High School. Class Secretary Kerry D'Entrone welcomed the graduates, as well as the family and friends who attended the ceremony. This year's two student speakers took excerpts of Nelson Mandella's inaugural speech, and put behind these words their own thoughts for the future. Joseph Svetecz, class speaker, spoke on the line "We are powerful beyond measure," and Christen Mancini, faculty speaker, took the line, "Playing small does not serve the world." Kate Bauer, class treasurer, presented this years class memorial gift -- a new clock for Liberty's main lobby. Bryan Shay, class president, stepped up to receive the first diploma, and was followed by the entire Class of 2000. Before the students sang the Alma Mater for one last time, David Andrew stood at the podium to bid farewell to Liberty's Class of 2000.

▲ Joseph Svetecz, reminds his fellow classmates of "The Little Engine that Could", and how he had the confidence to conquer what he wanted to do.



▲ You can tell by the look on these seniors faces, that they have waited for this night for quite a long time, and are ready for what lies ahead of them.

good luck to you
retiring teachers

Annette Fulton

Annette Fulton, guidance counselor for the Class of 2003, says farewell to Liberty this year. Out of her 20 years in education, ten of those years have been spent at Liberty. Mrs. Fulton's most memorable experience at Liberty was the graduation of the Class of 1999 who she became very close to. She plans to stay in the area and pursue an interest she has in the fine arts. Her message that she leaves with her colleagues and the students of LHS is, "Treat everyone with dignity, respect and compassion."

Sandra Seidel is finally saying good-bye to Liberty after 36 years of working in our school. She plans to stay in Bethlehem for now, but hopes to enjoy retirement through traveling and possibly relocating eventually. Ms. Seidel is also going to follow her own advice to students by keeping all doors open in order to find activities in which to spend her time. The assistant principal says she will greatly miss the opportunity to assist young people along the "road to maturity" and advises her fellow teachers and students to "always pursue that which allows for good, health, happiness, and a career that is as rewarding to you as my 36 years at LHS have been for me."

Sandra Seidel

Barbara Appleton

Mrs. Barbara Appleton, teacher of 10 years at Liberty, is retiring to enjoy all the things that she didn't have time to do when she was working. She will greatly miss the fulfilling interactions with the staff and students, but she will be staying in the area. Her most memorable experience at Liberty High was her son's graduation. Mrs. Appleton tells everyone at Liberty to "appreciate the school's great tradition."

Kathleen Gutierrez

Mrs. Gutierrez, English acquisition teacher, leaves Liberty after 15 years of teaching here. She will greatly miss the students that she has taught when she leaves. When she retires she plans to travel as much as possible. Since she has family in a different country, she hopes to enjoy the flexibility of retirement and visit as much as possible.

Don't worry! The world won't be deprived of these great teachers, but this school will. However, no matter where they roam, they will always keep Liberty close to their hearts.

Lindsay Birckhead

Lindsay,
I know we've had our problems, but it will be sad to see you leave. I will miss you so much while your away, even though we have only spent a year here at LHS together. Good luck at college, be sure to come back and visit me.
Love Your Little Sister,
Lauren

Lindsay,
You dance through our lives with grace, confidence, and optimism. We will miss your tapping feet. Whatever you do, whether launching wonderful performances, or wearing cute little business suits, we know that light and love will always be in your life, and you will always be in our hearts.
All of our love,
Mom, Dad, and Lauren

Alison Chlebowski

Ali,
"Do not go where the path may lead, go instead where there is no path, and leave a trail."

Love,
Mom and Dad

Craig Thomas Haytmanek, Jr.

Tommy-
We believe in you! Continue to question, think, and make good decisions.
Love,
Mom, Dad, Ali, and Beth

Jessica Mill

The girl with all the attitude anyone would ever need.
You never quit no matter how bad things get.
You will find that will help you in life.

Congratulations. We love you.
Mom, Dad, Chris, and Jonathan

Kerrin Rucker

Kerrin-
It seems like only yesterday...
We are so proud of you!
Love,
Mom and Dad

Dear Kerrin,
You've grown up to be a beautiful, caring sister.
And I thank you for always being there for me.
Good luck.
Love,
Dan

Jennifer Schultz

Jennifer,
We are very proud of you and all your accomplishments. You've been a great joy to all of us!
Keep smiling.
Love and happiness always!
Mom, Dad, and Graig

Kelly Dyson

Peanut, you're the best daughter we've ever lived with!

Dear Lauren,
We are so proud of you and all that you have accomplished. The journey isn't over; it is only begun. Keep smiling and go for your dream.
All our love,
Mom, Dad, and Emily

Toni Gimbar

Princess,
Look at you now, eighteen and graduating. I can remember you just turning one and taking your very first step. A lot has changed in eighteen years. You overcame so much; the fear of men, playing the violin, singing in choir, and being a baton twirler. You have done a lot of growing up. You seem to know what you want in life and I'm sure you will go get it. I love you with all my heart and that will never change. I'm here to support you and help you make the many changes that are ahead of you. Remember your prince is out there and he is looking for you. Oh yeah, Sophie says go get 'em, Aunt Toni.
Lots of love always and forever,
Mom xox

Janelle Hesse and Adriene Snyder

Today, you may not know all that the world has to offer. . .
But we know the world will be a better place because of what you have to offer it.

Today, you may not know which path you should follow. . .
But we know that you will listen to your heart, for it will never lie.

Today, you may question what you have already accomplished. . .
But we know you will never doubt what you can do.

As all of your tomorrows open themselves to you, never forget how proud we are of you. . .
yesterday, today, and always.

Always by your side,
Love, Mom & Dad H.

Dear Adam,
I can barely believe that you are graduating. Where have all those wonderful years gone? I'm so very proud of you and the beautiful person you have become. Always remember to count your blessings, stay positive, and, of course, call your mother!
I love you very much, Adam.

Always,
Mom

Ryan Finnigan

Ryan,
Well, we made it! You've been there for me whenever I needed you, and you've helped to make me the person I am today. I now realize that nothing will ever come between us and that you'll always be my best friend. I love you.

Love,

Dearest Son,

There are so many things we want for you.
So many wishes in our hearts.
As we watch you grow into your own life and leave your childhood behind, we wish you the strength to face challenges with confidence.
We wish you a world of adventure and experience and also the serenity that comes with listening to your inner voice as the world rushes around you.
We wish you the satisfaction of seeing your goals achieved, and the true contentment of all the simple things: work well done, friends well loved, and most important your family.
Our greatest wish is that you will always remember how much you are loved, for you are a beautiful and special person.
A man we are proud to have as a son.

No matter what direction your life leads you to,
You will always be our most precious baby girl.
Love always,
Mom, Dad, Tommy, Mark, and Belle Kitty

Ben O'Dell

We wish you the best. Keep your wonderful sense of humor. You are a great son and brother.
Love,
Mom, Dad, and Rob

Kerry D'Entrone

To our wonderful Kare-Bear
You are the sunshine of our lives. You have grown into a beautiful, confident, caring, and strong young woman. We couldn't be any prouder.
Love,
Mom and Dad

Becky Duh

Becky,
We love you and always will.
May God bless you and keep you safe in all that you do.
Love,
Mom, Dad, and Stacy

Alex Cofre

Alex,
Congratulations on all your accomplishments. You make us very proud. Looks like you're ready to take on the world.
May God bless you.
Love you always,
Mom, Dad, Priscilla, and Marcos

Marcos Cofre

Marcos,
Since you were little you liked to kick that ball. Congratulations on a great season. Keep making those goals throughout your professional/academic career. We're very proud of you.
May God bless you.
Love always,
Mom, Dad, Priscilla, and Alex

Dana Viti

Dana,
You came into this world two months early and weighed only two pounds, twelve ounces, a little fighter all the way. Never be afraid to follow your dreams in whatever you decide to do wih your life.
Congratulations and love from
Mom, Dad, and Dominic (1998)

Gina Nastasee

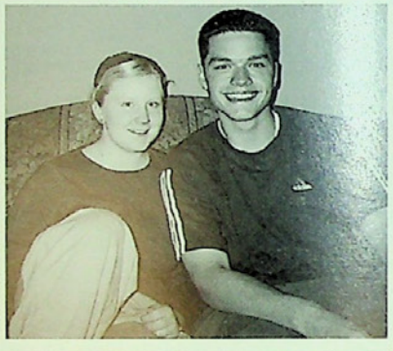
Yes you can!

Love,
Mom and Dad

Daniel Cuconati

Congratulations Daniel!
We are proud of you.
We will love you forever.
Love,
Mom, Dad, Christian,
and Laura

Together we stand
Divided we fall
Best of Friends,
Gina & Adam



Lauren Kruk & Steph Piltman

Steph-
Thanks for always being there. Good luck with everything, and never forget all the great times we've shared.
Love always,
Lauren

Ryan Finnigan

We wish you health and happiness as you continue to climb the ladder of success.
We are very proud of you.
Love,
Mom, Dad, and Ashleigh

From all of us

Steph,
Good luck in the future!
We'll miss you!
Love,
All of Us

Richard Miller

As you travel down the road of life, remember that there is a place where you are always welcome to unpack your bags and stay a while.
We love you son.
Mom & Dad

Todd Long

Todd,
Congratulations on becoming a fine young man. I am very proud of you, of what you've become, and of what you have achieved. It seems only yesterday that we were kicking soccer balls in the back yard. You have given me years of wonderful memories, and you will always be in my heart. You are now entering a new and exciting stage of your life: a stage filled with promise and possibilities. Take advantage of all that life offers. Be happy, be honest, enjoy your swimming, and keep your sense of humor.
Love always,
Dad

Glenn Womer, Jr.

Glenn Jr.,
You have always made us proud. May you follow your dreams with your heart and passion and only then will you be fulfilled. Success is not measured by how much money you have or how many material things you have, but how happy and satisfied you are in life. May you always be a responsible, respectful compassionate person. We love you dearly and will always be there for you through your challenges in life. Good luck in the U.S. Army!
With much love,
Mom, Dad, Maria, and Vincent

The girls!

Through good times and bad, we've always been there for each other. Let's keep it that way. Good luck!

Ankur Sheth, Jon Royer, & Rachel Sewald

To my boys:
From riding bike and "Can you come out and play?" to broken hearts and broken legs (paint!) and everything in between. I won't forget.
Love always,
Rachel

Beth and Gina Nastasee

Sisters make the best friends.

Rachel Sewald

Dear Rae,
You are such a wonderful young lady! We are so proud of you and your accomplishments. You are a gentle, loving person with a great wisdom. Follow your heart.
Love,
Mom and Dad

Alexis Burghoffer, Kara Getsko, Danielle Roser & Heidi Vreeland

You are all very special to me. I couldn't have survived high school without you!
Love always, Kara

Kara Getsko & Dan Lopez

To Danny:
I will never forget all of the memories we have shared over the past four years. Good luck in the military-I'll miss you!
Love, Kara

Jason Felton

Jason, We are so very proud of you! Congratulations on all your accomplishments and being a graduate of the Class of 2000. We wish you good health, luck, and happiness in all you do. Continue to be the best that you can be. We love you.
Love,
Mom, Dad, Shawn, Nicole, Reggie, Joy, and Ari

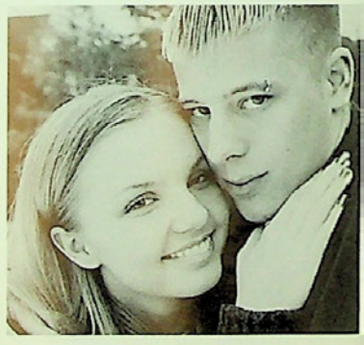
The Junior (soon to be senior) girls

Bugs, Spree, Mar[illegible]ala, S[illegible] Muffin, Carebear, Westawoman, K[illegible], M[illegible]my, and Annieroo,

Well girls, this is it. We're now seniors! Let's make the most of our year. Thanks for everything, for all the great times and for being the best friends in the world.
I love you guys!
Emily

Emily Cotter & Jon Szabo

. . . rainy Thursdays washed away the unknowingness of hidden eyes, dripping into sweet introductions and break of dawn trampoline adventures. . . who would have known it was only the beginning? "it makes me want to make you near me, always. . . "



Jen Flamish

To my little "miece"
I am so proud that you have grown to be the wonderful person you are today. Hope your future is as great as you deserve.
Love,
Gam

Laura Campbell & Mario D'Egidio

Mario, Although truly unexpected, you have become the love of my life. We have been through it all together and I can't think of anyone else I'd rather share it with. Thanks for always being there for me. Good luck at Temple and with everything you do. Never stop dreaming, I know you'll go far. You mean the world to me and I love you with all my heart. You'll always be my penguin!
Laura

Laura, I would have never imagined that my feelings for you would be so strong. I guess that true love can actually be where you would never expect it. Ilove you so much.
Love, Mario

Jenn Houk, Claudia Meilinger, & Jay West

To My Chica and Jay-Jay,
You both are one-of-a-kind friends.
We've had a blast.
Claud: Bowling, the "tendencies", Mike's garage, A&S "Claudi-audio" Russ, my bass, your laugh, "Jennifer", pepto-bismol.
Jay: Cherry slurpees, Pub, Louie-Louie, Dorney & Jeep, Neon and stickers, "I won", your accents, wafflehouse, somersaults off the bed, "the face", Koolaid, Lollies, Mikes 1/2 hair. Thanks for all the memories.
I love you both!!
Love, Jenn

Kerrin Rucker & Sean Crawford

Kerrin,
See how far we've come. I always knew we were destined for each other. Keep smiling, you're amazing.
Love always,
Sean

Erin Haddigan

Erin,
Three things to govern: temper, tongue, conduct
Three things to love: courage, gentleness, affection.
Three things to hate: cruelty, arrogance, ingratitude.
Three things to wish for: health, friends, a cheerful spirit.
Love,
Mom, Dad, Megan, Daniel, and Timmy

Alison Chlebowski & Ryan Finnigan

Alison,
You have been my best friend since the beginning of 10th grade and you probably will be for the rest of my life. I just want to say thank you for being there for me during all the good times and bad. You are my one true love. Never forget me,
I know I will never forget you.
From the deepest part of my heart,
I love you.
Love,
Ryan

James Matthew Scott II

Dear Matt,
We are so proud of the fine young man that you have become. Wherever you go, and whatever you do, our love and support will be with you always. Our most sincerest wishes that all your hopes and dreams come true and that your future will be promising.
Love always,
Dad, Mom, Nicky, Julie, and Natalie

Erin Haddigan & Lindsay Birckhead

Erin,
This year has been a true learning experience. One important lesson that we learned is don't listen to what the PO-9 says. You have been a great friend to me for many years and thanks for always being there. Good luck next year. Run 5-0 run!
I love you!!
Brick

Katie Kilpatrick & Megan Lewis

Katie,
Can you believe it's been 10 years since our first recital together? What an incredible person you've grown up to be. I wish you the best of luck in everything you do. May the road rise up to meet you, may the wind be always at your back. I love you!
-Meg

Jen Schultz, Kristen Rohal, & Lindsay Birckhead

Jen and Rohal,
Well this year has certainly gone by fast. I want to thank you two for being such good friends. We have always been there for one another and will continue to do that for the rest of our lives. Jen~ always remember buzzing in the sun... now you know how to drive stick. Kristen~ foodshopping, all our adventures, the library... oh god. I'll miss you two so much next year.
Love always,
Lindsay

Amanda Doklan, Liz Williams, & Heather Buss

Dear Amanda and Liz,
You guys are the greatest! We had may great times. Don't ever forget them. I know I won't. I wish you both the best of luck in years to come. You better come back and visit me. I love you guys!
Love always,
Heather

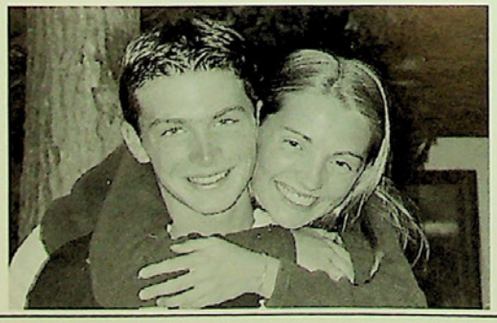
Mimo Reyes

Mimer,
Congratulations! You're finally done! I just want to let you know how proud I am of you and all that you've accomplished. You've been through so much these last few years, but you always come out smiling and what an amazing smile it is! Never let anyone tell you you can't make it. I know you can. Always reach for the stars!
I love you!
~ Meg

Tim Buck & Michelle Freeman

Michelle,
Thanks for always being there for me. I hope our love will last forever.
Love always,
Tim

Kerrin Rucker & Sean Crawford



Sean,

Here's another hug for the wonderful person you are and for all the amazing times we shared. I know we'll have many more!

I love you!

Kerrin

Alison Chlebowski & Lindsay Birckhead

Lindsay,
If anyone's been through thick and thin, the good and the bad, it's you and me. I knew we'd make it and nothing will keep us from being friends now!
Love you always,
Alison

Alison,
Since fourth grade you have always been there for me. Even though we've had our rough spots we've made it through. Thanks for always being a great friend.
Love always,
Lindsay

Autumn Raniere

Autumn,

You have so much open to you and we know with your determination that you can accomplish anything. So don't ever give up on what you want from life or from yourself. Don't put away the dreams inside of you because you have the power to make them real. Believe in yourself the way we do and nothing will be beyond your reach. Stay happy and healthy and remember, we'll always be here for you.

We love ya!

Mom, Dad, and Ross

Kathy Pacheco & Lauren Hoddinott

Mazz,
You will always be my #1 ghetto friend. Peace out g-dawg!
Love, Twizzlazz

Twizzlas,
I was rollin through A-Town in my expedition. . . No, nah no I wasn't, but on the "real" you're my best friend and I love you so much. You've taught me a lot and I could never forget my "crazy Canadian"! Good luck in everything, I know you'll succeed!
Love, Marz!

The Girls - 2000

Nikki & Erin,

Although our time at Liberty together has ended, true friendships last wherever you are! Never forget "basement parties," "slapjack-five," and of course, "West Chester, Moravian, Kutztown, Liberty!" Just remember, we are only a phone call away. Now it's your time to be Seniors! We love you girls and wish you the best of luck.

Laura, Sara, Katie, & Kristi

The Squirrels

To my "Squirrels",

It's been a great 4 years, I don't know what I would ever do without you guys! Never forget all the good times. I'll miss you and love you all!

Love Always,
Erin

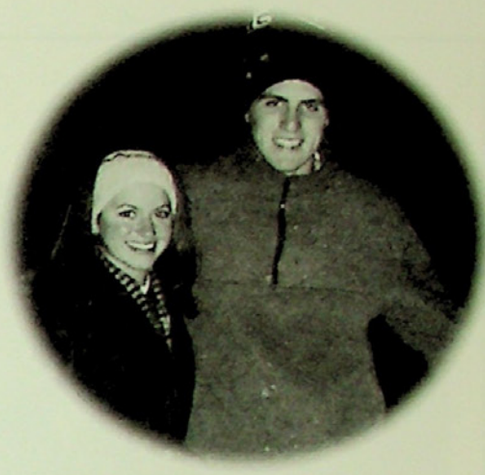
Sara Fiske & Katie Kilpatrick

Sara,
From Clearview to college; through good times and bad - we'll always stick together. You're like a sister to me, and I don't know what I'd do without you. I love you to pieces!
Love, Katie

Katie,
Here we are - 12 years later, barely taller, and graduating. I remember when we used to dream about this. We've been through it all: the snob squad, the chick-click, the train. You were my first true friend and I love you.
Love, Sara

remember the times

when we were young



ERTY

Brian Ellow

Brian,

Congratulations. You did it!
With your kindness to others and your great sense of humor you'll go far in life.

Keep smiling, Brian. We love you.

Mom, Dad, & Jason

Jen Flamish & Kristi Nann

Jen,
True friends will never leave your side, and through these 4 years no one has stuck by me like you. I hope the next 4 years will be the same. KU better watch out for us!
I love you!
Love always, Kristi

Kristi,
Through the good times and the bad, we've stuck it out. From the troubled, unforgettable boyfriends to the late night pigouts. We've made it this far, so let's stick it out 4 years longer. KU here we come!
Love always, Jen

Jessica Madl

Jessica,
Words cannot describe how proud we are of you as your graduation day approaches. Through times of happiness and sadness, you have worked hard to complete high school, and it is an accomplishment that will provide you the building blocks to your future. As you look forward, I know that you will continue to set your goals high and work diligently to achieve them. Always remember the fun experiences you had during your high school days. There are many more exciting times ahead. Enjoy life to its fullest and meet all your challenges head on. But most of all, always keep in mind that you have a family who loves you very much and supports you in everything you do. As the saying goes, "Friends may come and go, but family is forever!" This is the most important piece of advice I could pass on to you as you begin life's journey. Congratulations on your graduation day!!! You've earned it!

We love you,
Mom, Tom, Michelle, Alyssa, Natalie, Joe & Missy, Mike, Jim & Lisa, & John

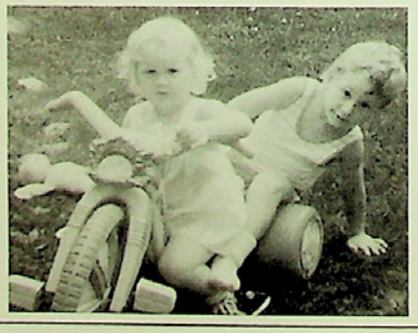
The 4 Musketeers

Dear Laura and Sallie,

Who said there could only be 3 musketeers? We love you guys! Best friends always and forever!

Love,
Kyra and Martha

Jared & Julie Anderson



Jared,

Even though the days of big-wheels are over, we still fight over who gets to drive! We've had our differences, but I'll always look up to you. Good luck next year.

Love,
Julie

The 2000 Cauldron, Volume 75, was printed in Gettysburg, Pennsylvania by the Herff Jones Yearbook Company. Under the guidance of company representative, Nancy Tunis, we, the Liberty High School Yearbook staff has once again produced a wonderful yearbook. All senior, underclassmen, and faculty portraits were taken by Christmas City Studios of Bethlehem, Pennsylvania. Christmas City Studio photographers also supplied the Sports Team pictures. Candid photographs for the Sports, Underclassmen, Senior, Faculty, and Student Life sections were supplied by Christmas City Studios and the Cauldron photography staff. Over eight hundred copies of the Cauldron were sold this school year. All seniors received their copy free of charge with the payment of their class dues. All underclassmen were charged $60.

This year's book was printed on Bordeaux 100# paper (black and white). The cover design is Nova Tex Lake 1820 with Spanish Grain and applied silkscreen color of Maroon. Endsheets are Slate with a deckled edge. The book consists of 342 pages, 16 of those in color and an eight page gatefold. All dividers were prepared by Lindsay Birckhead, Tommy Haytmanek, Meggie Munley, John Misinco, and Mrs. Gilliard.

The Cauldron Staff would like to say "Thank You" to Dave Raub and Maureen O'Meara who supplied us with many pictures, all of the computer teachers who let us use the computers during their class times, and the secretaries for all their knowledge. We would like to give a special "Thank You" to all of the parents and businesses that sponsored pages. We would also like to extend our thanks to Nancy Tunis, from Herff Jones Yearbooks, for coming to help whenever we called and for all her good ideas. A special thanks to all of the employees at Christmas City Studios in Bethlehem for helping us out in a jam. Everyone has been great, we couldn't have done it without you!
