Hoffner, Joseph A

Tendered Farewell

APR 16 1943

Joseph A. Hoffner, accountant, of the Bath Pike, was tendered a farewell party Wednesday evening at the Bethlehem Young Men's Association, Wyandotte Street, of which he is a charter member. A former resident of the city, he lived at 1833 Highland Street, Allentown, before purchasing the property on the Bath Pike.

He will leave on April 22 for military service. Close to a score of his close friends were present at the get-together party. Refreshments were served and a generally good time had by those present.
