Carter, Merlin I.

Eldridge Oberley Made a Sergeant

June 23 1944

Col. Merlin I. Carter, station commander of Army Air Field, Dyersburg, Tenn., announces the promotion of Eldridge G. Oberley from corporal to sergeant. Sergeant Oberley is a son of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Oberley, who resides at 177 East Washington Avenue, this city.

Prior to his entry into the armed services Sgt. Oberley was employed by the Bethlehem Steel Company.

He has completed the final phase of combat crew training at this field and is ready for combat duty as a gunner aboard a Flying Fortress.
