Filo, William J.

IN PACIFIC AREA 1943

Pfc. William J. Filo, a United States Marine, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Filo, 507 Polk st., is now stationed somewhere in the Pacific.

Pfc. Filo enlisted on March 22, 1942, in Michigan. From there he went to San Diego, California, for his basic training. In June of the same year he was sent overseas.

He attended St. Joseph's Parochial School and Broughal High School. He formerly was employed at the No. 6 Machine Shop, Bethlehem Steel Company.

April 6, 1943