Cpl. William Brader Home On Furlough

Cpl. William Brader, a son of Mr. and Mrs. William Brader, 1547 Maple Street, former Liberty High School football player, is home on an eleven-day furlough. He graduated from Liberty High School and was inducted Feb. 26, 1943. He attended Admiral Farragut Naval Academy and then Bucknell University for a year and a half before induction.

Cpl. Brader has two brothers in the service. Richard Brader was one of the first Marines to land on Bougainville Island and Stanford, a Marine, wears four stars for major battles in the Pacific and North Africa. He is aboard a transport somewhere on the high seas. Both latter brothers have been in service three and one-half years.
