

Taglang, Francis Leo

Meet in Hawaii

JUL 27 1944

Shown above, left to right, Staff Sgt. Alfred R. Taglang, son of Mrs. Anna Taglang 738 Wyandotte Street, and Francis Leo Taglang, Ph. M., 3-c, son of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Taglang, 616 South Bishopthorpe Street. These boys are cousins and although in different branches of the service, left Bethlehem at different times, had the surprise of their lives when they met in Hawaii and were photographed together so their parents could see how happy they were about meeting.

Alfred was graduated from Liberty High School, received his basic training in Virginia and has been in Hawaii for three years. Before his induction he was employed in the Taglang's store. Francis enlisted in the Navy November, 1942, and attended Bethlehem Catholic High School. He received his boot training at Newport, Rhode Island, and has been in Hawaii since March of this year.

July 27, 1944