

Hensinger, Richard C.

Musical G. I.

MAR 9 1945

GUADALCANAL — In a Christmas show put on by the GI's of his group, Private First Class Richard C. Hensinger played a prominent part and displayed the dancing school talent which won for him in his senior year at Liberty High School the title of "best dancer." He is stationed at this base with his Engineer equipment company. Pfc. Hensinger is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hensinger, 636 Tenth Avenue. In 1942 he graduated from Liberty High School, where, in addition to his dancing, he was outstanding in dramatic production operettas and in the Glee Club of which he was president. He was employed by the Bethlehem Steel Company before entering the Army in February, 1943. He has seen service with the Infantry, Air Corps, Combat Engineers and Engineers.
