

Lindner, Earl O.

Earl O. Lindner Promoted ~~Twice~~ ^{WV} 1945

Earl O. Lindner, son of Mrs. George Lindner, 432 Montclair Avenue, has been promoted twice within a few days from private to private first class and then to corporal. He is stationed at Strakonice, Czechoslovakia, in the 94th Division Band. Cpl. Lindner said just recently they had an Independence Day parade in which they had Czech, Russian, French, English and U. S. troops and bands as well as a Scotch bagpipe band.

Cpl. Lindner is also mail clerk for the band. He was inducted November 28, 1944, and has been overseas since April. His oldest brother, Lt. George K. Lindner, is in Ordnance, stationed near Paris. Another brother, Lt. Col. Kenneth R. Lindner, is now stationed at Camp Butner, N. C. He expects to stay in the army.
