

Stringer, Samuel

Sailors Here on Furlough

First Class Seaman Robert Wessner and Samuel Stringer, U. S. Navy, are spending a furlough at the home of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Wessner, 50 West Ettwein Street. Seaman Stringer is from Eloy, Arizona. Seaman Wessner has been in the service since September, 1942, and his fellow sailor since July, 1942. They have just returned from a cruise and will return to duty on Friday.

Feb. 17, 1943