GIVEN SEND-OFF PARTY

Fellow Employees of Joseph W.
Sheeby Hosts.

Joseph W. Sheeby, an employe for 16 years in the local Bethlehem Steel Co. plants billing department, was given a farewell party before he enters service with the nation's armed forces by a group of 55 of his fellow employes Thursday evening in the Beethoven Maennerchor here.

Guest of honor for the occasion was Pfc. George Dunbar, U. S. Marine Corps, of Fountain Hill. Pfc. Dunbar, who was wounded in service on Guadalcanal November 12, last year, is on a 40 day leave. He is to report back to the San Diego, Calif., base hospital next month.

Toastmaster D. H. "Mike" Flanagan introduced as speakers John O. Griffiths, Bethlehem Tobacco Club president, who gave the departing service man a kit from the club. P. J. Kostenbader, August Weishare, Paul Buecnler, Norval Ramson, Joseph Oravec and Leslie Ford.

Mr. Griffiths announced that the club packed 50 kits for Bethlehem service men and women Thursday.
