

Angelstein, Dorothy E.

LEAVE FOR HUNTER COLLEGE

Seven girls from the Bethlehem area are among the 105 young women of the Pennsylvania, Delaware and Southern New Jersey area who will depart from the Philadelphia Navy recruiting office Friday to start their training for a service in the WAVES at Hunter College, N. Y.

MAR 25 1943

In the group are Constance Rose Gomory, 15 East Broad st. and Anna Rice, 29 West Garrison st., city; Dorothy E. Angelstine, West Main st., Bath; Emma Catherine Hosier, 752 Washington st., Easton; Pauline Esther Neidig, 310 Franklin st., Quakertown; Annie E. Stout, 1952 Lehigh st., Easton; and Dorothy Jane Grubb, 1378 Jefferson Street, Hellertown.

Members of the third class to enter the enlisted personnel course at Hunter, the girls will have six weeks of basic training and then will be detailed to active duty.

March 25, 1943