

John, William E.

Naval Graduate

William E. John, 20, (above), son of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. John, Easton R. D. 3, is now in New York City with the rating of fireman first class after graduating at Great Lakes Naval Training Station, Ill., April 19. He is awaiting assignment to active duty. Fireman John completed an eight-day furlough with his family last night. He enlisted in the Navy October 19, 1942. He is a former Bethlehem Steel employe and a graduate of Bethlehem Technical High. Baseball fans will remember him as a pitcher for the Wagnersville A. C. in the City Catholic League.
