

Strohl, Paul

Awarded D. F. C.

Lieutenant Paul Strohl, son of Mr. and Mrs. Milton Strohl, 2138 Lincoln Avenue, Northampton, has been awarded the Distinguished Flying Cross for "extraordinary achievement" during Eighth Air Force bombing attacks on industrial and military targets in Germany. The official citation accompanying the award commented on the "courage, skill, and coolness shown by the flier during numerous missions in the toughest theatre of aerial warfare. In addition to the DFC, the flier holds an Air Medal and three Oak Leaf Clusters.

December 14, 1944