

LeVan, Earl W.

Hellertown Soldier
With Cited Unit

FEB 28 1945

NEW DELHI, India—Staff Sergeant Earl W. LeVan, 309 Main Street, Hellertown, Pa., is a member of a Signal Corps unit which has recently received the Meritorious Service Plaque. The plaque has been awarded for exceptionally fine performance of duty in providing vital communications for American Engineers engaged in the construction of pipeline through India, Assam and Northern Burma during the height of the tropical monsoon season.

Prior to his entry in the service in September 1942, LeVan was employed as an electric welder by the Bethlehem Steel Company.

February 28, 1945