

Boyer, Frank R.

Bethlehem Medical Officer Promoted
At English Base

FEB 19 1945

THE 93RD GENERAL HOSPITAL, England—Frank R. Boyer, medical officer, of 318 West Packer Avenue, Bethlehem, Pa., has been promoted to captain, announced Col. U. R. Merikangas, of New Haven, Conn., commanding officer of this United States Army general hospital.

"Besides his ward duties which have been carried out with a high degree of professional skill, Boyer has successfully performed several extra duty assignments calling for initiative and leadership," said Col. Merikangas.

Capt. Boyer is a graduate of Muhlenberg College at Allentown and the Temple University School of Medicine at Philadelphia. After a year's internship at the Allentown General Hospital, he enlisted in the Medical Corps in July, 1943. Capt. Boyer's wife, Mrs. Marguerite Boyer, lives at 346 Bayard Street, South Williamsport.

Feb 19, 1945