

Nakata, George

Sergeant

MAY 11 1945

George Nakata, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Nakata, 245 Seventh Avenue, received his sergeant's stripes while on active duty with the Paratroops in Germany. A veteran fighter, Sgt. Nakata took part in the landing on Anzio beachhead, Belgium and Holland, where he was wounded. Overseas for two years, he was inducted in January, 1943. In addition to his service ribbons, Nakata is also the proud wearer of the Purple Heart. His brother, Pvt. John Nakata, who has seen duty in Persia, is home on leave at present. A brother-in-law, Pvt. John Makos, is serving in Germany.
