

Madouse, William

Recently completing a prescribed course in a U. S. Army School at Camp Kimball, Ky., Pfc. William Madouse (above) was promoted to the rank of corporal. This information was received by his aunt, Mrs. Laura Schoeneberger of Easton R. 3, with whom he resided.

Inducted into the armed forces November 6, 1942, he received his training and schooling at Camp Kimball. Two weeks ago he was transferred to Nashville, Tenn. He is assigned to the 44th Armored Division. Before his induction he was employed as an inspector by officials of the War Department, assigned to the Bethlehem Steel Company.

September 17, 1943