

Ruth, Troy H.
Ruth, Paul H.

Brothers Receive Service Discharges

Troy and Paul Ruth, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Ruth, 1001 North New St., were honorably discharged from service within 48 hours of each other.

The brothers, both graduates of Liberty High School, hadn't seen each other for 41 months.

Troy H. Ruth, EM1/C, was discharged at Bainbridge, Md., Dec. 28, after serving 30 months with a Seabee unit in the South Pacific. He entered service Sept. 20, 1942, and was sent overseas from Gulfport, Miss., after training. Prior to entering the Navy he was employed by Roller-Smith.

Sgt. Paul H. Ruth was discharged Dec. 30 at Indiantown Gap. He donned olive drab Oct. 6, 1942, and was sent overseas in July of last year. An engineer with the 80th Division, he wears the ETO ribbon with four campaign stars, Good Conduct Medal and a Victory ribbon. The ex-sarge was employed as a sign painter.

January 2, 1946