

Arner, Kathleen M.

22 From Area in WAVES; Six Join SPARS Recently

According to a report from the recruiting center at Philadelphia, 22 young women from Allentown and vicinity have enlisted in the WAVES and six in the SPARS since March 26.

Four of the WAVES who have signed up recently will report for training on Tuesday, June 1. They are Emily Ruth Fellman, 51 South Second Street, Emmaus; Shirley Helen Phillips, 704 Cherokee Street, Bethlehem; Miriam Margaret Ruch, 643 Chestnut Street, Emmaus, and Jean Willamine DeYoung, 1050 Berwick Street, Easton.

Katherine B. Fullas, 416 Court Street, Allentown; Theda Lillian Richards, 712 Canal Street, Easton, and Isabel Kathryn Rader, 45 South Franklin Street, Allentown, accepted in the WAVES Wednesday, May 19, will also leave shortly.

Mae Bloss Kleckner, 1042 Tilghman Street, Allentown, who is an enlisted SPAR, will report to the next SPAR "boot" class in Palm Beach, Fla., on Monday, June 14. She will be the first young woman from this area to report to the new training school which has been set up in the Palm Beach Biltmore Hotel, considered quite a show place. Beginning June 14, all SPAR trainees will be sent directly to that school.

Kathleen Mae Arner, 739 Canal Street, Lehigh, who enlisted in the SPARS on May 19, will also leave shortly. Other recently enlisted SPARS now in training are Jane Elsie Lenhart, 2718 Helen Street, Allentown; Marjorie Louise Fries, 1325 Chew Street, Allentown; Helen Marjorie Pfeifle, 1120 Third Avenue, Hellertown, and Elsie Katherine Bamka, Dreher Avenue, Stroudsburg.

Recently signed up and now in training are these enlisted WAVES: Grace Marie Patten, 135 South West Street, Allentown, who is a song leader at the training center at Hunter College, New York; Phyllis Esther Behringer, 1114 Allen Street, Allentown; Solita Lorraine Cook, 321 North New Street, Bethlehem; Mary Jane Faust, 25 Wall Street, Bethlehem; Naomi Ruth Ginter, 641 North Tenth Street, Allentown; Margaret Hartigan, 430 Pawnee Street, Bethlehem; Mandrae Kerner, 512 Flot Avenue, Bethlehem; Margaret Kocsis, 1436 High Street, Bethlehem.

Dorothy Louise Morgan, 542 Goepp Circle, Bethlehem; Helen Mae Mast, R. D. No. 1, Northampton; Doris Leone Odenwelder, 719 West Broad Street, Bethlehem; Charlotte Hyman Smith, 232 North 18th Street, Allentown; Mary Toth, 248 South Penn Street, Allentown; Mary Lorraine Downs, 106 Center Street, Mauch Chunk, and Elizabeth Hart Meszaros, Central Avenue, Alpha, N. J.

May 28, 1943