

Ezar, Andrew J.

ENDS ARMY SERVICE

Pfc. Andrew J. Ezar, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Ezar, 864 Shield Street, was honorably discharged October 14 at Camp Fannin, Texas, after serving three years and four months in the service, fifteen of which were spent overseas. He participated in five major battles. His brother, John, was also recently discharged from the service. Pfc. Ezar intends to return to his former place of employment, the Bethlehem Steel Company.
