

Brosius, Charles L.

34 Selectees Are Accepted From This City

DEC 30 1943

Thirty-four men from Bethlehem were among the 106 accepted yesterday for the armed services at the Allentown Induction Center.

Among those accepted for air cadet training in the Army are: Charles L. Brosius, Asa L. Day Jr., Raymond W. Coffman, Carl L. Heck, all of Bethlehem and William F. Johns, Lehigh.

Men from Bethlehem City Board No. 3 taken into the Navy are: William W. Werkheiser, Richard E. Murphy, Robert J. Masteller, Joseph V. Lavinger, Charles E. Bees, Lester W. Rader, John C. Frederick, Theodore Counts, Richard J. Weaver, William J. Braden, Ernest R. Bush, Gilbert C. Strohm, Richard S. Hill, James W. Hartzell, Robert E. J. Hinkle, Charles E. Cuning, Albert O. Lionesch, Theodore V. Arnold. John Nagy of Bethlehem Board No. 2 was also taken into the Navy and Carl J. Farrell of Board 3 was accepted for the Marines.

Bethlehem 3 board men taken for the Army are: Harry L. Breiner, Charles J. White, Edward G. Hoffman, Paul F. Hippensteal, Walter K. Lowright, Charles E. Seifert, John J. Cawley, Belford Miller, Earl D. Bryant Jr., Raymond G. De Long, John M. Gera.

Dec. 30, 1943