

BAPL workshops on racial justice and systemic racism

The Bethlehem Gadfly George Floyd killing, Police July 10, 2020

🦋 Latest in a series of posts responding to the George Floyd killing 🦋 a can't miss!

Dialogues in Racial Justice

An Introductory Workshop Series on Issues of Systemic Racism in the United States

2ND AND 4TH TUESDAYS

6:30-8:00 PM

TOPICS INCLUDE:

RACE AND RACISM:

THE CONSTRUCT OF RACE AND HOW RACISM IS MAINTAINED

July 14th

400 YEARS OF OPPRESSION:

SYSTEMIC OPPRESSIONS IN AMERICA FROM SLAVERY IN 1619 TO POLICE BRUTALITY IN 2020

July 28th

POLICE BRUTALITY: A HISTORICAL PERSPECTIVE

THE RACIST HISTORY OF POLICING AND THE GRADUAL MILITARIZATION OF THE POLICE

August 11th

FIGHTING FOR JUSTICE:

EQUITABLE REFORM RESULTING IN RESTORATIVE JUSTICE

August 25th

Linda Wiggins-Chavis has diverse backgrounds in theology & social justice. She is a theologian, author, activist, biochemist and teacher.

Download Zoom and register now!
Registration ends the day before the session.

To register, go to:

<https://www.bapl.org/events/categories/virtual-events/>

Zoom meeting information will be sent to your email the day of the event.

This workshop series is sponsored by Friends of the Library.