

Laub, Walter

SALVATION ARMY TO GIVE FAREWELL FOR SELECTEE

8-5-1942
Member of Local Corps to Leave for Camp August 12.

All Salvation Army soldiers, U. S. soldiers and friends of Walter Laub, 256 West Fairview Street, have been invited by Major Clark Little, local Salvation Army leader, to farewell ceremonies in Mr. Laub's honor at 8 p. m. in the Salvation Army Citadel, 615 Main Street.

Mr. Laub, who will leave as a draftee Wednesday, August 12, for Camp Fort George Meade, Md., will address the gathering at the Citadel's junior hall.

A Citadel corps member, the departing selectee is also a member of the local Salvation Army Band and assistant scout leader of Citadel Troop No. 12, Boy Scouts of America. He was formerly a teacher of the Citadel Sunday School here, besides having been president of a Salvation Army youth forum several years ago.

Refreshments will be served after Mr. Laub's address and a program is being arranged for the occasion by Lieut. Robert Strain, of the local corps.
