

Brader, Edward C.

Now a Sergeant

Edward C. Brader, 1996 Brookside Drive, Bethlehem, who has been promoted to sergeant at his Army station at the Pomona Motor Base, Pomona, Cal., it was learned here today. Sgt. Brader, Sr. ASN, is in his seventh month of service in California. His job is supervision of a crew of 28 men in the packing and shipping department of a large supply warehouse. His work corresponds to a shop foreman in any large civilian warehouse. The camp is located on the Los Angeles County fairgrounds where horse racing and fair life prevailed periodically before the war, Sgt. Brader's wife and his five children reside here at the Brookside Drive address.

Jul 19, 1943