

De Angelis, Anthony
Joseph

Dies In Action

MAR 21 1945

Private First Class Anthony DeAngelis, son of Louis DeAngelis, 608 South Bergen Street, Fountain Hill, was reported killed in action in Belgium, December 19, in an official telegram received yesterday. In addition to his father, Pfc. DeAngelis is survived by his sisters, Dorothy and Rose, at home; and a brother, Staff Sergeant Joseph DeAngelis, serving somewhere in France with the Engineers. A memorial mass will be celebrated in his honor by Rev. Joseph Pugliese in Holy Rosary Church, Monday morning, 9 o'clock.

March 21, 1945