Saucon Defenders Note Boys' Birthdays

Secretary Robert E. Scheetz, of the Saucon Valley Defenders, has received a letter from Seaman Second Class John A. Vogel, now attached to a U. S. Navy construction unit in the Aleutians, acknowledging receipt of greetings upon his recent birthday and the usual gift of $2.50.

Seaman Vogel commented that he felt the people at home were working too hard in the interests of the men in service, when it usually is regarded as the other way round, adding that the folks at home "really have it tough."

Vogel's brother, William, who garnered honors in Boy Scouting before his departure for the service, is now stationed at Camp Mackall, in North Carolina.

Birthdays of Saucon Valley servicemen this week include the following: Today, Apprentice Seaman Glenmore A. Thatcher Jr., now at Sampson, N. Y.; tomorrow, John Fenstermacher, now with the U. S. Navy at Newport, R. I.; May 14, Pfc. Harold L. Moyer, stationed at Lake Charles, La.
