

Amey, Arthur A.

Pvt. Arthur Amey Dies in Hospital In French Area

FEB 17 1945

Word of the death of her husband, Pvt. Arthur A. Amey, a native of Coopersburg, was received yesterday by his wife, Mrs. Tabea Amey, 910 New Street, Bethlehem.

Pvt. Amey died of illness in a hospital in France on February 3, according to a War Department telegram received by Mrs. Amey.

Surviving are his wife, the former Tabea Susssmilch, to whom he was married in January of 1944; his father, Abner A. Amey, Coopersburg; two sisters, Mrs. Fred Miller, Coopersburg, and Mrs. Ruth Fries, Allentown, and a brother, Paul Amey, Allentown.

Pvt. Amey went overseas last December. He entered the Army in October of 1941, spent two years in Panama and on his first furlough was married. He then went to Camp Stewart, Ga., and trained at Camp Benning, Ga., before going overseas as a member of the Quartermasters Corps.

Feb 17, 1945