

Bednarik, Charles P.

Gets Air Medal 15 1944

The award of the Air Medal to S/Sgt. Charles P. Bednarik for "meritorious achievement in aerial combat over Germany and enemy-occupied territory" was announced recently in England by Major General William E. Kepner, commanding general of the Second Bombardment Division.

His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bednarik, reside at 521 East Fifth Street. A waist gunner on a B-24 Liberator group, he entered the service August 16, 1943, while studying at Bethlehem Technical High School.

Nov 15, 1944