

Brader, Stanford

Home From Front

Sgt. Stanford Brader, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Brader, 1547 Maple Street, arrived home last week on a ten-day furlough, after eight months in the Mediterranean. Having seen action against Nips in the Pacific in 1942 and the Jerries in Sicily and Italy, he said there is still no place like home. Mrs. Brader will return to Norfolk with her husband until he leaves again on new adventures.

JAN 26 1944

Jan 26, 1944