

Gosling, Walter

MESSAGE FOM GOSLING

Have you ever discussed the chances of the Allies in Africa? If you did or did not, get an earful of this:

APR 15 1943

"You can bet a hundred to one that we will chase the Germans to h--- out of Africa and into the sea. I notice in certain magazines that some of the people are getting impatient. They should be sent here."

That's what Private Walter Gosling, Headquarters Co., 66th A. R., told his pal, Edward Cottage, a member of the police department, in a recent letter. Before he enlisted he was an employe of the Bethlehem Steel Company.
