

Wolfe, William J.

Home On Furlough JUL 3 1944

Pvt. William J. Wolfe, son of Mrs. Anna Wolfe, 221 Northampton Avenue, is spending his furlough with his wife, the formre Miss Marthella Unangst, 133 East Garrison Street.

Pvt. Wolfe was stationed at Fort McClellan, Ala., in the infantry. He will leave on Thursday for Fort Meade, Md.

The Wolfe family will have four in the service: Dorothy, at Kelly Field; Robert, SIC, who is in a naval hospital in California after being in four major battles in the Pacific area; William, on a furlough at the present time, and John, who will leave for service in a few weeks.

July 3, 1944