

Construction Update: Wilbur Mansion

The Bethlehem Gadfly Wilbur Mansion February 25, 2020

 Latest in a series of posts on the Wilbur Mansion

Mrs. Gadfly and I were just talking about this as we drove by the Masonic Temple on Rt. 378 over the weekend.

“What do you know about this project Mr. know-it-all Gadfly,” she said rather challengingly?

A prophet without honor . . . etc., etc.

<https://youtu.be/2VRuvPgg7kU>

John Noble appeared before the CRIZ Board February 6 to report that negotiations with the Sayre Mansion did not work. He submitted a new project, restaurant partner not disclosed, and his start date was extended a year to about this time next year, with still a two-year completion date from the time he starts.

You're welcome, honey.