

Stettler, Lillian

Lieutenant's Commission for Northampton Nurse

Lillian Stettler, R. N., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Stettler, 1619 Washington ave., Northampton, left Friday for Philadelphia for the Shenango Personnel Replacement Depot Transfer near Pittsburgh to begin service in the Army Nursing Corps.

APR 3 1943

Upon her arrival there she will be commissioned a second lieutenant. A graduate of the Northampton High School, she received her degree in the Hahnemann Hospital School for Nurses, Philadelphia. Following her graduation from the latter, she remained as a private duty nurse in Hahnemann Hospital.

During the past several weeks, Lieutenant Stettler was tendered many farewell gatherings.

In addition to her parents, the new officer has two sisters, Mrs. Leon C. Kuntz, Northampton, and Mrs. George Rayden, Catasaquua.

April 3, 1943