

Dietrich, Le Roy

LEROY DIETRICH WINS AIR CORPS COMMISSION

^{JAN 14 1943}
Completes Training at Columbus
Flying School, Miss., Today.

LeRoy Dietrich, who resided with his brother, J. William Dietrich, and Mrs. Dietrich, 724 Second Avenue, received his commission as second lieutenant in the United States Army Air Corps at the Columbus Flying School, Columbus, Miss., today.

LIEUT. LEROY DIETRICH

Formerly employed at the First National Bank and Trust Company, the new second lieutenant is the son of Charles E. Dietrich, 211 East Garrison Street, and a brother also of Harold, Raymond and Russell Dietrich, all of this city. He was graduated from Liberty High School and is a member of the DeMolay

Alumni and Holy Trinity
Lutheran. He applied for
U.S Army Air

THE B

Air Corps prior to Pearl Harbor but was not called for training until January, 1942. He was last home here in May, 1942, and was at Columbus, the largest air corps flying school in the southeastern army area, since November.

January 14, 1943