George deSchweinitz, Jr.,
At Camp Crowder

Pfc. George L. deSchweinitz, Jr., son of Dr. and Mrs. G. L. deSchweinitz of North Main Street Extension, has been transferred from the ASTP at the University of Maryland, where he has studied German for the past six months to Camp Crowder, Miss. He is attached to a signal training battalion.

His brother, Richard deSchweinitz, who returned recently to the Choate School, where he is a student, took his examination in New Haven, Conn., for the Naval Reserve V-12. He will return to Bethlehem April 19 to take examinations as a candidate for Congressman Walter's nomination to the U. S. Naval Academy.
