

Brown, Louis R.

Geraldine Hahn Bride Today of Naval Veteran JUN 15 1945

The marriage of Miss Geraldine Hahn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Hahn, of 554 South Clewell Street, and Louis R. Brown, Mo MM 2-c., USNR, son of the Rev. and Mrs. T. C. Brown, of 930 Itaska Street, took place at 4 o'clock this afternoon in Grace Evangelical and Reformed Church, Fountain Hill. The bridegroom's father performed the ceremony.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attended by her sister, Miss Marion Hahn. The bridegroom's brother, Franklin J. Brown, served as his best man, and another brother, Theodore A. Brown, was usher.

The bride wore an eggshell street-length gown with Navy accessories and her maid of honor wore a light blue dress. Their corsages were pink roses.

Miss Stella Frantz, organist, played the traditional wedding marches and accompanied Miss Marjorie Richards, the soloist, who sang "O Promise Me," "I Love You Truly" and "Because."

Following a small reception in the Hotel Bethlehem, the couple left for the Pocono Mountains on their wedding trip.

The bride was graduated from Fountain Hill High School and is employed by the Coca-Cola Bottling Company of Pennsylvania.

The bridegroom was graduated from Moravian Preparatory School in 1941 and was employed by the Bethlehem Steel Company until entering the Navy on Nov. 10, 1942. He took his boot training at Bainbridge, Md., and technical training in Richmond, Va. He has been on active service in the European theater for the past 25 months.
