Bath Youth Takes Navy Refresher Course

HAMILTON, N. Y.—Robert Lerch, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Lerch, Chestnut Street, Bath, Pa., is included among 86 men in the fourth class to report to Colgate University's Navy Academic Refresher Unit (V-7) since it opened July 27. After 16 weeks of refresher work at Colgate Lerch will enter midshipman's school.

Lerch entered the Navy in May, 1944, and now holds a rating of seaman first class. He was selected direct from the fleet after showing officer qualities. Lerch was graduated from Nazareth High School in 1937 and received a B. S. degree in 1941 from Ursinus College.
