

Di Donato, Charles

Bethlehem Coast Guardsmen

Coast Guardsman Charles Di Donato (left), coxswain, 639 Hayes Street, and Joseph T. Hoder, coxswain, 909 East Sixth Street, working a winch aboard a Coast Guard-manned invasion transport in the Philippines. The men are two of many hundreds of Coast Guardsmen who have swept their way across the Pacific to participate in the liberation of Jap-held islands.

Nov. 18, 1944