

Altemus, Joseph F.

Grace Malloy Wed in Virginia To Lt. Altemus

SEP 4 1943

The wedding of Miss Grace Dolores Malloy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter J. Malloy, to Lieut. Joseph F. Altemus, son of Mr. and Mrs. James H. Altemus, took place Monday afternoon at 5:30 o'clock in the chapel at Langley Field, Va. The Rev. Eugene Maguire, Catholic chaplain, performed the ceremony.

Lieut. John P. Higgins, U. S. Army Air Corps, was best man. Mrs. Frank N. Stanley, Jr., of Washington, D. C., was her sister's matron of honor.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore her sister's wedding gown of white satin, with a square neckline, three-quarter length sleeves and full skirt. Her finger tip veil fell from a coronet of orange blossoms. She carried a white prayer book and orchids.

Mrs. Stanley wore a gown of orchid faille with a bouffant skirt and three-quarter length sleeves. She wore ostrich plumes of orchid and purple in her hair and carried dahlias and gladioli.

The bride wore a beige and brown plaid suit, brown calot and alligator accessories for her going away outfit.

After the ceremony a reception was held at the Officers' Club for the immediate family and members of Lieut. Altemus' crew. The couple are staying at the U. S. Hotel Chamberlin, Old Point Comfort, Va.

Mrs. Altemus was graduated from Liberty High School, attended Moravian College for Women and was employed in the engineering department of the Bethlehem Steel Company. Lieut. Altemus was graduated from Liberty High School, Victorville Bombardier School, California, and later from Mather Navigation School, California.
