

Applegate, Robert T.

HOME FOR HOLIDAY.

Home on furlough for the first time in three years was Sgt. Robert T. Applegate, U. S. A., son of Stanley Applegate, 803 Evans Street. Sgt. Applegate was at first stationed at Scofield Barracks, Honolulu, T. H. Later he was transferred to the Presidio, San Francisco, just before the Japs struck at Pearl Harbor. His promotions to corporal and sergeant came while at the Presidio. He left the evening of Thanksgiving Day to return to San Francisco.

NOV 27 1943

Nov 27, 1943?