

Kneiss, Albert A

Air Corps Officer

MAR 8, 1945

AN EIGHTH AIR FORCE BOMBER STATION, England—Albert A. Kneiss, 24-year-old B-7 Flying Fortress co-pilot, of Bethlehem, and a steel mill worker before entering the Army Air Forces, has been promoted from the rank of second lieutenant to first lieutenant. First Lt. Kneiss, flying with the 100th Bombardment Group, a unit of the Eighth Air Force's Third Air Division, has helped fly his bomber in bombing attacks on numerous targets in Germany, including railroad marshalling yards, communications centers, synthetic oil plants and tank factories. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph J. Kneiss, of Rural Route 4, Bethlehem, and his wife is Mrs. Mary P. Kneiss, of Rural Route 4.
