

Styer, Leroy

PROMOTION ANNOUNCED—Leroy Styer, former Bethlehem Steel Co. employe and now a member of an armored division at Ft. Benning, Ga., is now numbered among the former local men sporting corporal's chevrons in the service of Uncle Sam. Styer is at present corporal technician. He was inducted into the service on April 16, 1941 and sent to Ft. Meyer, Va., where he was attached to the Third Cavalry, known remained at Ft. Meyer until February of this year when he was transferred to Ft. Oglethorpe, Ga. A little later he was sent to Ft. Benning, minus his horse, and attached to the armored division. Corp. Styer, in a letter to the Globe-Times, writes that he has "seen a lot of the United States and I hope to see a lot more." His wife visited him at Ft. Oglethorpe, he writes, and formerly he was able to get home now and then, but since being stationed at Ft. Benning he has not been on furlough. 8-21-1942
