

Robert LeRoy Lambert, USNR, son of Mr. and Mrs. George J. Lambert, 118 East Ettwein Street, who was promoted recently at a California Naval Base, receiving the rank of machinist's mate, third class. Petty Officer Lambert entered the service February 10 and is now somewhere in the South Pacific. Today is his 22nd birthday anniversary and is also the birthday of his mother. It is the first since born on his mother's birthday, that the two have not celebrated the event together. He was a machinist's apprentice at the Bethlehem Steel Company before entering the Navy.
