

Tice, Willard H.

TRANSFERRED TO FLORIDA

Lieut. Commander Willard H. Tice, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter T. Tice of Quakertown, has been transferred from the Naval dispensary at Washington, D. C., to Pensacola, Fla., where he will take a course in the Florida school of Aviation Medicine to prepare himself for a post as flight medical examiner.

Before entering the service, Aug. 12, 1942, he was connected with the Tice hospital and clinical laboratory and the Quakertown Hospital.
