

Fry, Donald F.

Captain Honored

MAY 25 1945

WITH SIXTH INFANTRY DIVISION ON LUZON—Capt. Donald F. Fry, husband of Mrs. Catherine Fry of 630 Ontario Street, Bethlehem, and other members of the Sixth Infantry division adjutant general's section have been commended by Brig. Gen. C. E. Hurdis, division commander, for "superior and tenacious performance of duty" during the Luzon campaign.

The general's commendation, based upon an inspection of the section by an inspector-general of higher headquarters, said the work of the group had been "excellent."

Fry is an assistant adjutant general in charge of the division APO.
